Israel says it carried out ground raid into Syria, seizing a Syrian citizen connected to Iran

JERUSALEM: The Israeli military said Sunday it has carried out a ground raid into Syria, seizing a Syrian citizen involved in Iranian networks. It was the first time in the current war that Israel announced its troops operated in Syrian territory.

Israel has carried out airstrikes in Syria multiple times over the past year, targeting members of Lebanon's Hezbollah and officials from Iran, the close ally of both Hezbollah and Syria. But it has not previously made public any ground forays into Syria.

The Israeli military said the seizure was part of a special operation "that took place in recent months," though it did not say exactly when it occurred. Syria did not immediately confirm the announcement, but a progovernment Syrian radio station, Sham FM, reported Sunday that Israeli force carried out a "kidnapping operation" over the summer targeting a man in the south of the country. The disclosure of the raid comes as Israel has waged an escalated campaign of bombardment in Lebanon for the past six weeks, as well as a ground invasion along the countries' shared border, vowing to cripple Hezbollah, On Saturday, an Israeli military official said naval forces carried out a raid in a northern Lebanese town, seizing a man they called a senior Hezbollah operative. The army identified the man it seized as Ali Soleiman al-Assi, saying he lives in the southern Syrian region of Saida. It said the man had been under military surveillance for many months and was involved in Iranian initiatives targeting areas of the Israeli-annexed Golan Heights near the border with Syria.Body camera footage of the raid released by the army showed soldiers seizing a man in a white tank top inside a building. The man was brought to Israel for interrogation, the military said.Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu visited the border with Lebanon on Sunday, saying his focus was trying to keep Hezbollah from rearming itself through the "oxygen lifeline" of Iranian weapons transferred to Lebanon via Syria. Israel says its campaign in Lebanon aims to push Hezbollah away from the border and put an end to more than a year of fire by the group into northern Israel.

Israel's strikes in Lebanon have killed more than 2,500 people over the past year. In Israel, 69 people have been killed by Hezbollah projectiles.

China's marriage registrations fall by almost a million in 2024

World. China has reported a significant drop in marriage registrations for the first nine months of 2024, amidst efforts to control its declining population. According to the ministry of civil affairs, only 4.747 million couples got married in this period. This decline follows 5.690 million marriage registrations during the same period in 2023, marking a year-on-year decrease of 943,000 registrations, as calculated by Reuters.

The latest figures, released on Friday, show that rising living costs and economic uncertainty are causing many young couples to delay marriage. This poses a challenge for lawmakers looking to address the shrinking population. In response to the situation, China has updated a draft law to make marriage registration easier but has made it harder to get a divorce. For the first three quarters of 2024, 1.967 million divorces were registered, a slight decrease of 6,000 compared to the previous year.

Earlier this year, China experienced its second annual decline in births, prompting initiatives aimed at encouraging a "new-era" culture of marriage and

 In a video that has gone viral, Khalistani supporters were seen assaulting devotees and trespassing on the temple premises.

World The Hindu Mahasabha Temple in Brampton, Canada, was attacked on Sunday amidst rising tensions between India and Canada. In a video that has gone viral, Khalistani supporters were seen assaulting devotees and trespassing on the temple premises. Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and Leader of the Opposition Pierre Poilievre have both condemned this vile act of violence. "The acts of violence at the Hindu Sabha Mandir in Brampton today are unacceptable. Every Canadian has the right to practice their faith freely and safely. Thank you to the Peel Regional Police for swiftly responding to protect the community and investigate this incident.," PM Trudeau said.Adding to the outery, Canadian MP Kevin Vuong voiced his concerns, warning that Canada is becoming a safe haven for radicals. He further emphasised that the country's leadership had failed to s a f e g u a r d t h e H i n d u community."Completely unacceptable to witness violence targeting worshippers at the Hindu temple in Brampton," said Poilievre.

'All Canadians should be free to practice their faith in peace. Conservatives condemn this violence unequivocally. I will unite our people and end the chaos.," he added.Meanwhile, the High Commission of India in Ottawa also issued a strong statement on Monday condemning the recent attack on Brampton's Hindu Sabha temple by "anti-India" elements. In its statement, the High Commission remarked, "We have seen violent disruption today (November 3), orchestrated by anti-India elements outside the consular camp co-organised with the Hindu Sabha Mandir in Brampton, near Toronto. "Peel Regional Police said on X Sunday afternoon that they were aware of the protest taking place at the Hindu Sabha Mandir, and had increased its presence at the temple to maintain public order and safety.

We respect the right to protest in a peaceful and safe manner but will not tolerate violence and criminal acts," Chief Nishan Duraiappah posted on X Sunday after the videos began circulating.

Indian-origin Canadian Member of Parliament Chandra Arya condemns attack

Harpreet Bajwa Indian-origin Canadian Member of Parliament Chandra Arya condemned the attack on Hindu temple in Brampton. He raised concerns over the frequent attacks on Hindus in Canada.Chandra Arya tagging a video wrote on social media platform X,"A red line has been crossed by Canadian Khalistani extremists today.The attack by Khalistanis on the Hindu-Canadian devotees inside the premises of the Hindu Sabha temple in Brampton shows how deep and brazen has Khalistani violent extremism has become in Canadal begin to feel that there is a small grain of truth in the reports that in addition to Canadian political apparatus, Khalistanis have effectively infiltrated into our law enforcement agencies.No wonder that under the 'freedom of expression' Khalistani extremists are getting a free pass in Canada. As I have been saying for long, Hindu-Canadians, for the security and safety of our community, need to step up and asserts their rights and hold politicians accountable."he said.

From 2020 to 2024: Kamala Harris and Donald Trump on home stretch

World. The 2024 US presidential election is shaping up to be a nail-biter, with Democrat Kamala Harris and Republican Donald Trump locked in a tight battle. With a day to go for polling, both Harris and Trump are at the centre of global attention. However, both faced different political landscapes in the closing days of the 2020 election. In 2020, it was a historic moment for then-Senator Kamala Harris as she joined Joe Biden's team as the first joined Joe Biden's team as the first Black and South Asian woman to be nominated for vice president by a major party. She would go on to make history that year as Biden defeated Trump in a chaotic election

The 2024 poll was initially a rematch of 2020. However, it was upended in July when President Biden ended his campaign and endorsed Vice President Harris. Now, she is gearing up to become America's first female president and the first woman of colour for the top job.For Trump, the scenario was completely different. In 2020, Trump was battling for re-election in a year shaped by the Covid-19 pandemic. Fast-forward to 2024, Trump is now seeking a rare comeback, with the baggage of a host of controversies and the label of becoming the first US president -- former or current -c h ar g e d with criminal activity.KAMALA HARRIS: FROM VICE-PRESIDENT TO FIRST BLACK WOMAN RUNNING FOR PRESIDENT

In 2020, Kamala Harris, who is of Indian-Jamaican heritage, initially ran for the Democratic presidential nomination. However, Biden won the race and chose Harris as his running mate, calling her "a fearless fighter". She was chosen not only for her extensive legal and legislative experience, but also as a symbol of hope and representation for the 47.9 million Black Americans.In the run-up to the 2020 polls, Harris focused on core messages of unity and rebuilding America post the Trump era, in contrast to the more divisive tone of the Trump campaign. She focused on relaying African tone of the Trump campaign. She focused on rallying African American and minority communities, particularly in key swing states. Criminal justice reform was a key plank of her campaign, defined by the years she spent as a California prosecutor. Harris's appeal to younger and diverse voters was key in Biden securing a win, albeit narrow, in key swing states. Cut to 2024, with only a short period of campaigning ahead of her after Biden withdrew from the race, Harris had no time to waste. Coming out of Biden's shadow, Harris has spent much of her time trying to differentiate her role as vice president from what she planned to do if elected.

Japanese nuclear reactor that restarted 13 years after Fukushima disaster is shut down again

TOKYO: A Japanese nuclear reactor that restarted last week for the first time in more than 13 years after it had survived a massive 2011 earthquake and tsunami that badly damaged the nearby Fukushima nuclear plant was shut down again Monday due to an equipment problem, its operator said.

The No. 2 reactor at the Onagawa nuclear power plant on Japan's northern coast was put back online on Oct. 29 and had been expected to start generating power in early November.

But it had to be shut down again five days after its restart due to a glitch that occurred Sunday in a device related to neutron data inside the reactor, plant operator Tohoku Electric Power Co. said.

The reactor was operating normally and there was no release of radiation into the environment, Tohoku Electric said. The utility said it decided to shut it down to re-examine equipment to address restidents' safety concerns. No new date for a restart was given. The reactor is one of three at the Onagawa plant, which is 100 kilometers (62 miles) north of the Fukushima Daiichi plant where three reactors melted following a magnitude 9.0 earthquake and tsunami in March

Mount Laki-Laki volcano erupts in Indonesia; 9 killed

World. Mount Lewotobi Laki-Laki volcano erupted in eastern Indonesia on Sunday, killing at least nine people, launching massive plumes of lava, and forcing authorities to evacuate several nearby villages, according to officials."After the eruption, there was a power outage, followed by heavy rain and intense lightning, which caused panic among residents," said Hadi Wijaya, a spokesperson for the Center for Volcanology and Geological Hazard Mitigation (PVMBG), adding that authorities had raised the volcano's status to Level IV, the highest alert level, as reported by Reuters news agency. Hadi said fiery lava and rocks hit the nearest settlements around four kilometre (two miles) from the crater, burning and damaging residents' houses. The agency recommended a seven-kilometre (4.35 miles) radius to be cleared."We have started evacuating residents since this morning to other villages located around 20 kms (13 miles) from the crater," Hadi said.By Monday morning, at least nine people had died and the nearest villages were covered by thick volcanic ash, according to Heronimus Lamawuran, a local official in the East Flores area.Indonesia lies on the "Pacific Ring of Fire," a region of intense seismic activity where multiple tectonic plates converge. The eruption comes amid a series of volcanic eruptions across Indonesia. In May, Mount Ibu on the remote island of Halmahera erupted, prompting evacuations from seven nearby villages.After torrential rain on May 11, flash floods and cold lava flows from Mount Marapi in West Sumatra province swept through several nearby districts, leaving more than 60 people dead.

Pakistan shuts primary schools for a week in Lahore due to dangerous air quality

LAHORE. Dangerously poor air quality on Monday forced Pakistani authorities in the cultural capital of Lahore to close primary schools for a week, government officials said, after the air-quality index hit a record high over the weekend. The measures in Lahore were part of a larger effort to protect children from respiratory-related and other diseases in the city of 14 million people. The government said everyone in Lahore was required to wear a face mask. Fifty percent of employees must also work from home as part of a "green lockdown" in the city, the government said, adding that barbecuing food without filters was banned and motorized rickshaws restricted. Wedding halls must close at 10 p.m. and artificial rain is likely to be used to combat the pollution. The airquality index in Lahore exceeded 1,000 over the weekend, a record high in Pakistan. Toxic gray smog has sickened tens of thousands of people, mainly children and elderly people, since last month when the air quality started worsening in Lahore, the capital of eastern Punjab province bordering India. The government has also banned construction work in certain areas and fined owners of smoke-emitting vehicles. Schools will remain closed for a week because of the pollution, according to a government notification.

The concentration of PM 2.5, or tiny particulate matter, in the air approached 450, considered hazardous, the Punjab Environment Protection Department said.Lahore was once known as a city of gardens, which were ubiquitous during the Mughal era from the 16th to 19th centuries. But rapid urbanization and surging population growth have left little room for greenery.

2011, releasing large amounts of radiation. The Onagawa plant was hit by a 13-meter (42-foot) tsunami triggered by the quake but was able to keep its crucial cooling systems functioning in all three reactors and achieve their safe shutdowns. All of Japan's 54 commercial nuclear power plants were shut down after the Fukushima disaster for safety checks and upgrades. Onagawa No. 2 was the 13th of the 33 still useable reactors to restart.

Japan's government last year adopted a plan to maximize use of nuclear energy and is pushing to accelerate reactor restarts to secure a stable energy supply and meet its pledge to reach carbon neutrality by 2050.Concern about the government's revived push for nuclear energy grew after a magnitude 7.5 earthquake hit Japan's Noto Peninsula on Jan. 1, 2024. killing more than 400 people and damaging more than 100,000 structures.

Violent rhetoric to wooing Arab Americans: Trump, Harris make final pitches

North Carolina. Democrat Kamala Harris made her closing pitch for the US presidency at a historically Black church and to Arab Americans in battleground Michigan on Sunday, while her Republican rival Donald Trump embraced violent rhetoric at a rally in Pennsylvania.Opinion polls show the pair locked in a tight race, with Vice President Harris, 60, bolstered by strong support among female voters while former President Trump, 78, gains ground with Hispanic voters, especially men.Voters overall view both candidates unfavorably, according to Reuters/Ipsos polling, but that has not dissuaded them from casting ballots.More than 78 million Americans have already done so ahead of Tuesday's Election Day, according to the University of Florida's Election Lab, opens new tab, approaching half the total 160 million votes cast in 2020, in which US voter turnout was the highest in more than a century.Control of Congress is also up for grabs on Tuesday, with Republicans favored to capture a majority in the Senate while Democrats are seen as having an even chance of flipping Republicans' narrow majority in the House of Representatives. Presidents whose parties fail to control both chambers have struggled to pass major legislation."In just two days we have the power to decide the fate of our nation for generations to come," Harris told parishioners at Greater Emmanuel Institutional Church of God in Christ in Detroit. "We must act. It's not enough to only pray; not enough to just talk."Later in a rally in East Lansing, Michigan, she addressed the state's 200,000 Arab Americans, starting her speech with a nod to civilian victims of Israel's wars in Gaza and Lebanon."This year has been difficult, given the scale of death and destruction in Gaza and given the civilian casualties and displacement in Lebanon, it is devastating. And as president, I will do everything in my power to end the war in Gaza," Harris said to applause.Many Arab and Muslim Americans as well as anti-war activist groups have condemned US support for Israel amid the tens of thousands of civilian deaths in Gaza and Lebanon, and the displacement of millions. Israel says it is targeting militant groups Hamas and Hezbollah.Trump visited Dearborn, Michigan, the heart of the Arab American community, on Friday and vowed to end the conflict in the Middle East without saying how.Instead of mentioning Trump by name, Harris chose to highlight her opponent's record during her last Sunday on the campaign trail.

TRUMP GOES OFF SCRIPT

Trump, at his first of three rallies on Sunday, frequently abandoned his teleprompter with off-the-cuff remarks in which he denounced opinion polls showing movement for Harris. He called Democrats a "demonic party," ridiculed Democratic President Joe Biden and talked about the high price of apples.

Trump, who survived an assassination attempt in July when a gunman's bullet grazed his ear in Butler, Pennsylvania, on Sunday complained to supporters about gaps in the bulletproof glass surrounding him as he spoke and mused that an assassin would have to shoot through the news media to get him."To get me, somebody would have to shoot through the fake news and I don't mind that so much," said Trump, who has long criticized the media and sought to rile public sentiment against them.Last week he suggested prominent R epublic an critic, former congresswoman Liz Cheney, should face gunfire in combat over her hawkish foreign policy, leading an Arizona prosecutor to open an investigation.Campaign spokesperson Steven Cheung issued a statement saying Trump's comment was not directed toward the media but rather, "It was about threats against him that were spurred on by dangerous rhetoric from Democrats."Trump later spoke in Kinston, North Carolina, and in Macon, Georgia, where he seized on last week's jobs report that showed the US economy only produced 12,000 jobs last month.He told a large crowd gathered in an amphitheater that the report showed that the United States was a "nation in decline" and he warned darkly without evidence of a potentially looming repeat of the 1929 Great Depression with "people jumping offbuildings."

PDP member brings anti-Article 370 resolution in J&K assembly

RNS I Srinagar: During the first session of the Jammu and Kashmir Assembly on Monday, Wahid Parra from the People's Democratic Party (PDP) introduced a resolution opposing the revocation of Article 370. This move quickly drew criticism from lawmakers of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP).

The resolution challenges the central government's 2019 decision to remove the region's special status. Assembly Speaker Rahim Rather, from the ruling National Conference, confirmed that the resolution was permissible despite BJP objections. The abrogation of Articles 370 and 35A in August 2019 was a major shift in governance, dividing Jammu and Kashmir into two union territories. This assembly session is the first since that change, following elections in September-October 2024 that resulted in a National Conference-Congress coalition. In these elections, the NC-

Congress alliance won 48 seats, while the BJP took 29, mainly in Jammu. The that the people of J&K do PDP saw a sharp decline, not support the 2019 deci-

Four-Year-Old Dies After Choking on Candy

by Sunil Bajapi

Kanpur: A heartbreaking incident has struck the community of Barra Jarauli Phase-1, where a four-yearold boy tragically lost his life after choking on a piece of candy. The child's mother, Sonalika, is reported to be in severe distress, having fainted multiple times since the incident, which occurred on Sunday evening.

The boy, identified as Anvit, was enjoying a candy known as Frutola, similar to Kinderjoy, when it became lodged in his throat, leading to respiratory distress. Despite his mother's attempts to help by giving him water, the situation worsened. Anvit struggled for approximately three hours before his parents rushed him to a nearby private hospital, but unfortunately, he did not receive the timely treatment he needed.

The grief following this tragedy has deeply affected Sonalika, as well as Anvit's elderly grandparents, who are also reportedly in a state of shock. Witnesses described Sonalika as inconsolable, frequently fainting from the emotional toll of her loss. In the wake of this incident, local police have confirmed that the family declined a post-mortem examination, and the child's body has been released to relatives. RNS I Dehradun: At least 36 people have been killed after a 45-seater passenger bus fell into a 200-meter gorge in Uttarakhand's Almora district on Monday morning, media reports said.

The bus was travelling overnight from Pauri in Garhwal to Ramnagar in Kumaon. The accident occurred at around 7:25 am. Locals were the first respondents and they rushed to the spot to start with the rescue operations. A rescue operation by the State Disaster Response Force is underway.

JMM Seeks Presidential Intervention After CM Soren's Helicopter Delay

Ranchi: The Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) has formally reached out to President Droupadi Murmu following a significant disruption to Chief Minister Hemant Soren's schedule

Soren's helicopter was grounded for one and a half hours due to a no-fly zone implemented during Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Garhwa and Chaibasa.

In a letter to the President, JMM General Secretary Supriyo Bhattacharya detailed that Soren was slated to address an election meeting in Bazar Tand, Simdega, at 2:25 PM, after a prior commitment in Gudri, West Singhbhum, at 1:45 PM. Notably, Prime Minister Modi's arrival in Chaibasa was scheduled for 2:40 PM for his own rally. The JMM pointed out the logistical challenge, as Gudri is 80 km from Chaibasa and 90 km from Simdega, and asserted that the Election Commission had approved Soren's travel itinerary.

Bhattacharya stressed the importance of the Election Commission's autonomy, expressing the JMM's respect for its regulations. He also highlighted Soren's tribal background and his ascent to leadership through significant struggle, drawing parallels to President Murmu's own experiences. The letter concluded with a request for the President to ensure fair treatment for all political parties during elections and to uphold the constitutional rights and respect of tribal representatives.

PM's "Infiltrator" Jab At Hemant Soren's Party, Congress In Jharkhand Rally

Garhwa, Jharkhand: Launching a scathing attack on the incumbent Hemant Soren government a week ahead of Jharkhand Assembly polls, Prime Minister Narendra Modi today said it put appeasement at the top of its agenda.Addressing a rally in Jharkhand's Garhwa, the Prime Minister said the coalition government of Jharkhand Mukti Morcha, Congress and RJD are "supporters of Bangladesh infiltrators". "The JMM-RJD-Congress government has taken appeasement to its peak. These parties are destroying the state's social harmony. They are supporters of infiltrators.

getting them settled across Jharkhand," he said."When schools disallow Saraswati Vandana, you can imagine how big the danger is. When there is stone-pelting during festivals, Maa Durga is stopped and curfew is imposed, you know how dangerous it is. When the issue of infiltration goes to court and the administration denies, it become clear that the government machinery has been infiltrated. They are taking your roti, beti and maati," the Prime Minister said. He was referring to allegations that a Muslim teacher stopped prayers to Goddess Saraswati at a school in Jharkhand's Giridih.

To get votes of Bangladesh infiltrators, they are "If the bad policies of JMM, Congress and RJD continue, the adivasi society in Jharkhand will shrink. So, use your vote to uproot this infiltrator coalition," he said, adding that Jharkhand's swift development is possible only if it has a government that expedites the implementation of central schemes. In a direct offensive targeting Hemant Soren, the Prime Minister referred to the JMM's decision to replace Champai Soren as Chief Minister after Hemant Soren was granted bail in a money laundering case. Champai Soren, one a trusted lieutenant of Hemant Soren, is now with the BJP."What did they do with Champai Soren ji! They left no stone unturned in humiliating an adivasi son. How will they care for you when nothing matters to them more than family. I would ask every young man of Jharkhand, it is necessary to teach a lesson to such selfish parties," the Prime Minister said, adding, "I don't have a family, you are my family." Accusing the ruling coalition of corruption, he said, "Corruption hollows out the country like termites. It destroys the poor, Dalits, people from backward classes and tribals.

Jharkhand has seen for five years the corruption of the JMM-Congress-RJD government."The Prime Minister then referred to the massive cash haul from the home of Congress's former Rajya Sabha MP Dhiraj Sahu last year. "Mountains of cash are recovered from the home of Congress's Rajya Sabha MP. I have never seen such mountains. I saw them on TV. Machines got tired during the counting, Didn't this money belong to Jharkhand?" he asked.Earlier, the Congress had said Mr Sahu is from a business family and the cash recovered was in no way linked to the party or the state government.

Priyanka Gandhi slams BJP for politicising' landslide disaster in Wayanad

Wayanad. Continuing her criticism of the BJP, Congress leader and UDF candidate for the Wayanad Lok Sabha bypolls, Priyanka Gandhi Vadra said on Monday that the saffron party has politicised the landslide that struck this hill district in July, claiming numerous lives and displacing many residents.Kicking off her second day of campaigning, she addressed a corner meeting at Kenichira in the Sulthan Bathery Assembly constituency."Even a disaster that caused immense pain to people was politicised by the BJP. And this is where we start today. We stand in a place where you must think about your country, your own needs, and the kind of politics you want in our nation," the Congress general secretary remarked.

Taking a dig at the saffron party, Priyanka said the BJP's politics, "which is spreading across the country, is characterised by hatred, anger, divisiveness, and destruction." She stated that real issues facing the people are being overlooked, and their problems remain unresolved.She further claimed that unemployment is at an all-time high and prices are continually rising, with no indication of a halt."Politics is not focused on resolving these issues. The BJP's politics is solely aimed at distracting you from your problems, because its only aim is to remain in power, no matter the cost,' Priyanka said. She also accused the BJPled central government of 'failing' to distribute necessary funds to help families affected by the massive landslides.

If you give me the chance to represent you in Parliament, I will show you that I can work harder than anyone else for you. I will voice your issues everywhere. I will fight for you and put pressure on both the state and central governments. You will have a

The Congress leader resumed her second phase of campaigning on Sunday, holding public and corner meetings in the hill constituency alongside her brother, Rahul Gandhi.Making her electoral debut, Priyanka Gandhi, will be in Kerala until November 7, according to her campaign itinerary. She plans to hold corner meetings in four additional locations, within the Kalpetta and Sulthan Bathery assembly constituencies, on Monday.

National Conference MLA Abdul Rahim Rather elected J&K Assembly Speaker

A seven-time National Conference MLA, Abdul Rahil Rather represents the Charar-i-Sharief Assembly constituency in Budgam district. New Delhi:Veteran National Conference (NC) leader and seventime MLA, Abdul Rahil Rather was on Monday elected as the new Speaker of the Jammu and Kashmir Assembly. Rather represents the Charar-i-Sharief Assembly constituency in Budgam district.For the first time in six years, the Assembly commenced a five-day session today. Election of a new Speaker was the first in the List of Business issued by the Assembly Secretariat. The 80-year-old was elected Speaker by a voice vote after opposition parties decided against contesting for the post. Protem Speaker Mubarak Gul conducted the election.

Minister for Agriculture Javed Ahmad Dar moved a motion to name Rather for the post, while NC's MLA Ramban Arjun

Singh Raju seconded the motion.Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha is also scheduled to address the House later in the day.Congratulating Rather, Chief Minister Omar Abdullah said he was the "natural choice for the post of Speaker"."You have served the people by sometimes being in the party and sometimes by being in the opposition. Now, you are the custodian of the House," he said.

During a meeting of its Legislature Party on Sunday, the J&K BJP nominated Narinder Singh Raina as its candidate for the post of Deputy Speaker. The party did not name a candidate for the Speaker's post. The last session of the Jammu and Kashmir Assembly took place in 2018, a year before the abrogation of Article 370.

This is also the first session after the September-October Assembly elections in the union territory that were conducted after a gap of 10 years. The NC-Congress alliance won the polls, by securing 49 out of the total 90 Assembly seats. The BJP won 29 seats, all in Jammu.Omar Abdullah was sworn in as the Chief Minister on October 16

Telangana government forms collection centre, gears up for caste census in state The Telangana government has officially begun the process for a comprehensive caste census across the state to collect detailed data on social, economic, educational, and political demographics of all communities.

Hyderabad. The Telangana government has initiated measures to begin caste census across the state. This census will be a comprehensive survey designed to gather detailed information about the population's social, economic, educational, income, political, and caste characteristics across various communities. To oversee this, Rudra Santhosh Kumar was appointed as the Monitoring In-charge. Kumar will coordinate the project and ensure it reaches grassroots communities, working closely with local Congress leaders to strengthen public awareness and engagement. This effort, backed by the All India Congress Committee (AICC), seeks to address issues of equity and representation, with Telangana aiming to set a model for similar efforts nationwide.

The goal is to better understand the makeup o f Telangana's society and to support equitable policies and programmes that can address the specific needs of different communities.A dedicated 'Connect Centre' will be set up at the Telangana Pradesh Congress Committee (TPCC) Office to manage operations for the census. This centre will serve as the primary hub for coordination, connecting district observers, DCC presidents, and representatives from village-level committees to facilitate community engagement at every level. Congress workers will receive specialised training through organised programmes designed to give them resources and tools to communicate the census's purpose and benefits to communities across the state. Regular review meetings, led by the TPCC president, will monitor the census's progress, with weekly reports providing updates to ensure that objectives are met efficiently and effectively. One of the promises made by the Congress was to conduct a caste survey in the state if they were voted to power. To that effect, then Telangana Congress chief Revanth Reddy in an open letter had stated that only a caste census would ensure justice for the backward class community.In January this year, as chief minister, Reddy had said the state would soon have a caste census.

"Long Live Those Who Chide Us...": MK Stalin On Actor-Politician Vijay's Jab

▶Vijay's TVK has ruffled the feathers of both the DMK and its long-time rival, the All India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam, since it was registered as a political party on September 8.

Chennai: The war of words between Tamil Nadu's ruling Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam and actor-politician Vijay's fledgling Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam flared up again Monday, with Chief Minister MK Stalin accusing "new parties" of wanting to "eliminate" the DMK. Mr Stalin, however, played down the import of such threats, declaring, "I can only say, 'long live those who chide us'." The riposte comes a day after Vijay targeted the ruling party on multiple issues, including sale of liquor and law and order.Although Mr Stalin did not specifically mention Vijay or his TVK, the reference was clear, with the Chief Minister saying sarcastically, "... as (former Chief Minister and DMK icon) CN Annadurai said, I can only say 'long live those chide us' and that our intention is to do good for the public.""We don't have to respond to others needlessly... we don't want to waste time as we don't have enough to serve the people," the DMK boss said, as he preps for the 2026 Tamil Nadu election."In one word, if I need to say something, I can say 'vazhga vasavalargal' (translated as 'let those who criticise us live'). I am not worried about those things," he said, adding, "... even those who launch new parties (the comment seen as a jab at Vijay) want the DMK eliminated."To that end, Mr Stalin this morning reproved "a few media" publications for circulating photos from last year's devastating floods to claim waterlogging after a spell of heavy rain in October."A few media used flood visuals of last year (to) claim there is waterlogging now... a few do this, not all. Please don't mistake me... (but) they don't like the DMK growing," he said,"All I can humbly ask of them is to think of our achievements over the past nearly four years."On Sunday, Vijay's TVK launched a multi-pronged attack at the DMK and the opposition Bharatiya Janata Party, accusing the former over the sale of alcohol through government-controlled shops and criticising the latter over the contentious NEET for medical courses.

At a meeting of district-level party officials, the TVK passed 26 resolutions, including condemning the union government's 'One Nation, One Election' proposal. There was also a resolution against Mr Stalin's government for its handling of the southern state's finances.Vijay's TVK has ruffled the feathers of both the DMK and its long-time rival, the All India Anna Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam, since it was registered as a political party on September 8. The DMK and AIADMK, and the Dravidian ideology at their core, dominate Tamil Nadu politics, making it next to impossible for national parties like the BJP and Congress to make their mark. The TVK will hope to break that stranglehold with help from the actor's immense popularity. Perhaps predictably, the TVK has not been received favourably by the DMK or AIADMK. Earlier Vijay accused the DMK, and hit out at the Chief Minister and his family's legacy, of having cheated the people of Tamil Nadu "in the name of the Dravidian model".Last week the ruling party dismissed the newcomer's political ideology as having been copied from its books, while the opposition party called it a "cocktail" of various political positions."These are all our policies, he is copying ... whatever he says is what we already said and which we are following," the DMK's TKS Elangovan told news agency PTI.AIADMK spokesperson Kovai Sathyan congratulated Vijay on entering politics but said he has a long way to go to deliver. TVK's ideology "is a mix of ideology of all parties and old wine in new bottle...a cocktail ideology taken from all political parties in Tamil Nadu," he said.

We have learnt nothing from 1984

IT was early 1985, perhaps the end of February. I saw a notice somewhere that Khushwant Singh was going to speak about the final days of Indira Gandhi's rule and its aftermath. The venue was the Press Club of India. In those days, Delhi had not surrendered its beautiful spring weather to smog and breathlessness. When I reached the Press Club, its lawn was already packed. I spotted the last few empty chairs shining in the late afternoon sun at the grassy lawn's edge.Khushwant delivered his long lecture in a steady, scholarly voice. His column 'With Malice Towards One and All' and his jokes had given him a popular profile, but those who knew about his two-volume history of the Sikhs were aware of his erudition. That evening, he took the silent audience through all the details of the shipwreck Delhi and the country had experienced over the previous few months. He said Indira's decision to choose a military solution to the Golden Temple crisis was deeply flawed.

Everyone in the audience knew how close and loyal he had been to Indira. He and many others had suggested alternative ways to deal with the situation. The riots that followed her assassination across the country had laid bare the vulnerable state of India's democracy, he said. The violence against Sikhs was politically inspired and the mass killings were publicly instigated in Delhi and other cities. Three years later, when Raj Thapar, Managing Editor of Seminar (it closed last year), died, Khushwant wrote in his column that the riots triggered her cancer.I agree with him. Witnessing the Delhi massacre was an experience like none other. From my balcony in a South Delhi flat, I saw a young Sikh crouching behind the water tank on his house's roof, his arms stretched across his two young children, while a howling crowd beat on the door downstairs. The younger sister of my old Sikh friend, a Hindi teacher in Madhya Pradesh, was staying with us. I didn't want our maid to know that she was merely a friend, so I told my two-year-old son to call her 'bua'. And I told her not to appear at the balcony. My parents had witnessed the Partition. They chose not to tell me anything they had seen. Shall I do the same?

Schools were shut for a fortnight in early November. When they reopened, I remember sitting in a Grade-6 English class at Bal Bharati School on Lodhi Road. As a supervisor of BEd trainees, my job was to sit in classes and write advisory notes on their lesson plan book. My student did what English teachers routinely do: wrote a few words used in the text on the blackboard and asked children to use them in their own sentences. One of these words was 'arrive'. A boy who instantly raised his hand had made this sentence: "When a Sikh arrived in Delhi, Hindus killed him." My student looked perplexed. She knew that the government had issued strict orders to avoid any mention of the riots in classes. The sentence using 'arrive' was grammatically correct.The class I attended next was a civics lesson. That day, the topic was 'The Rights and Duties of Governors'. Our system encourages teachers to mind their own business, i.e. teach their own subject. An English teacher, therefore. focuses on grammar. Civics teachers would not be expected to discuss riots. When I narrated the English-class episode in my book Learning from Conflict (current edition: Education, Conflict and Peace), some readers said they were shocked.

A student asked me what the trainee teacher could do when the school authorities didn't want anything 'real' to be mentioned, let alone discussed, in a class. Decades have passed, and I still hear stories of principals harassing teachers who dare take a stand on anything. They are supposed to act like robots. And if they are soon replaced by robots, we shouldn't be surprised. India's social sphere continues to witness public horror — lynchings, riots, rapes — but the teacher is supposed to stay silent, concentrating on the subject and the prescribed textbook. The latest policy expectation from them is to enhance outcomes.

Good looks, dictated by what should be the perfect colour, curves in all the right places and a certain oomph, do matter. In our appearance-obsessed society where women, and some men, work tirelessly to conform to an impossible idea of beauty, how can our fruit and vegetables be treated differently? How can we be seen eating or gifting a not-so-perfect apple or mango? The quest for the reddest apples or bright yellow bananas or mangoes, it seems, has almost been achieved.If you haven't noticed it already, something strange is happening to the fruit available in the market nowadays. Fruit stalls look bright and beautiful. However, consumers are becoming increasingly unsatisfied with the quality of the fruit they pick up from supermarkets or vendors. How often have you bought some beautiful apples only to find them tasteless and lacking in flavour or some of them developing a cottony texture within days? Discerning consumers have to search hard to find sweet and crunchy apples nowadays. The prettiest bananas are difficult to peel and tasteless to eat. Golden mangoes come with a strangely gooey core. Meet ethephon, the hot new agro-pesticide in town that is doing much to enhance the looks of our fruit, even as its use affects their taste and flavour. Ever since the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) approved its use for ripening fruit in August 2018, it has seduced farmers and invaded fields and orchards. Last year, the FSSAI banned the use of calcium carbide, which releases acetylene gas, commonly called 'masala'. Instead, it permitted ethephon in limited quantity, to be used in sachets on the condition that it should not come in contact with the fruit. The chemical, an organophosphorus pesticide, which goes under the innocuous description of 'plant growth regulator', generates the natural hormone ethylene in fruit to advance their maturity. The FSSAI has permitted its use only in the powder form, and only to generate ethylene gas for the artificial ripening of fruit. The permissible quantity is not more than 0.5 gm for 10 kg of fruit. Fair enough. After all, fruit has to be transported over long distances and this is possible only if it is plucked when still unripe. It needs a little help to become soft and sweet during the journey. But ethephon's wonder (mis) use, as farmers have discovered, is that if sprayed on unripe fruit that is still on the branch, ethephon promotes a stunningly good colour and shine on the outside, even when the fruit pulp inside is still unripe. For instance, in Himachal Pradesh, hundreds of gallons of ethephon, manufactured by leading chemical companies, are bought in July and August to be sprayed directly on the still green apples on the branches, to prepare them for early marketing in the mandis. Ethephon increases the rate of anthocyanin synthesis, the pigment which gives the red apples and other fruits their colour. But these good looks, which are prized in the market, come at a price because apples sprayed with ethephon are tasteless and deteriorate faster than usual, making it harder to store them. Traders are happy to offer a better price for the uniformly red, shiny apples. Unsurprisingly, the buzz in the mandi and retailer circuits is that fruit from Himachal Pradesh is not sweet any more. Plums, apples, pears, pomegranates, all are mostly sprayed with ethephon before harvesting.

Everyone is in on this secret, except the consumer. But who cares? The supply chain knows that the average customer still goes for the best-looking fruit in the vain hope that it will be tasty. In August, HP Chief Minister, Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu, drew attention towards the rising cancer cases in the state and urged the farmers to adopt chemical-free farming. A state which was once known to produce relatively clean and chemical-free vegetables and fruits no longer commands a spot in that space. Sukhu wants to expand natural farming in HP and has initiated steps for the certification, branding and marketing of

Senior citizens' care

Politics undermines public health scheme

natural farming products. But all the power that he wields cannot beat the allure of market forces driving the premium on good-looking produce.

Some 10 years ago, Dr YS Parmar University of Horticulture and Forestry in HP approved the use of 1 ml/per litre of ethephon in its package of practices (PoP) for apples. It is an accepted low dose. Ethephon was subsequently taken off the university's PoP, but farmers didn't stop. They are now using it in far larger doses of 4-5 ml/per litre, sprayed a week or 10 days before the harvest. The state Horticulture Department lacks the resources to monitor and stop its use, and watches its rampant misuse helplessly. The Jammu and Kashmir Government banned the use of ethephon in 2017 due to its harmful effects on human and plant health. It is a highly corrosive acid, which can cause serious health issues if consumed, including damage to the upper respiratory tract, oesophagus burns, neurological problems and liver toxicity. The ban was based on recommendations from the Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences and Technology, Kashmir, and the Law Enforcement Directorate.In January 2022, the Telangana High Court, after hearing a petition that sought a ban on ethephon in that state, went along with the FSSAI recommendations. It held that if the chemical is kept in small pouches to generate ethylene gas, there is no conflict of the statutory provisions as contained in the Insecticides Rules or the Food Safety and Standards Act.Last March, the FSSAI noted in a press release that despite these directions, traders and handlers were misusing the approved sources of ethylene gas (read ethephon) by dipping fruit in ripening agent solutions, making the fruit unsafe for human consumption. Bananas and mangoes are dunked in tubs of ethephon solution to make them pretty and soft. Scientists have reported that regular consumption of artificially ripened fruit may cause dizziness, weakness, skin ulcer and liver-related diseases.Fruits harvested at proper maturity release ethylene gas naturally that aids in their ripening. But nobody wants to wait; everyone is in a hurry to take the fruit to the market. The buck, however, stops at the consumer's door. The day consumer decides that he/she will not allow good looks to trump taste and flavour, we might go back to the days when the taste of fruit felt real and natural.

- AS I write these lines, the government has not reacted to the truly unprecedented proceedings of the 126th meeting of the Canadian House of Commons Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security of October 29. The theme of the meeting was 'Electoral Interference and Criminal Activities in Canada of Agents of the Government of India'.
- The officials who gave evidence before the committee, whose proceedings went on for over two hours, were the country's National Security and Intelligence Adviser Nathalie Drouin, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs David Morrison, Canadian Security and Intelligence Service Director Daniel Rogers, Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness Department's Associate Deputy Minister Tricia Geddes and Royal Canadian Mounted Police Commissioner Michael Duheme. A stronger panel of officials could not have been summoned to give an account on behalf of the Justin Trudeau government regarding its allegations against India.
- In her opening statement, Nathalie Drouin gave a detailed account of Canada's version of the interaction between Canadian and Indian officials concerned after the murder of Hardeep Singh Nijjar in June 2023 in Surrey, Canada. She alleged that India's "refusal to cooperate led us to where we are today."Drouin's statement went far beyond the Nijjar murder in seeking to paint a picture of Indian interference and promotion of criminal activities in Canada. Her statement, the responses of the officials to the questions posed to them and the comments of some MPs who participated in the committee's proceedings were very negative from the Indian standpoint.In all, they constitute a grave diplomatic challenge which cannot go without a credible take extra-territorial action to defend their interests will not do because India has always projected itself, including during the tenure of the present dispensation, as a country which abides by international law. Further, it will no longer be sufficient to deny that Canada has not given evidence because the Canadian officials have emphatically stated that they had done so. Hence, India's diplomatic and security establishments will have to ensure that it shows that the material given to them by the Canadians was untenable.Drouin claimed that Canada had proceeded on two tracks: law enforcement and diplomatic. The former involved protecting Canadian nationals from Indian actions and the latter led to engaging India, which was Canada's significant international partner, with important people-to-people ties. However, Canada could not ignore attempts by the "agents of the Indian government" to promote coercion and violence and undermine our democracy." She asserted that Canadian officials tried to keep the channels of communication open with their Indian counterparts and had held meetings in 2023 - August and September in Delhi, November in Dubai, December in Saudi Arabia - and 2024 - January in London and March in Dubai. Finally, a meeting was held on October 12 in Singapore.She said that her predecessor and other Canadian officials had met India's National Security Adviser on six occasions. She also met the Indian High Commissioner. She claimed that the Indian response was spreading the false narrative that Canada had shown them "no evidence and was ignoring its concerns on Khalistan."Drouin claimed that at the October 12th response. A muscular attitude that powerful states take extra-territorial action to defend their interests will not do because India has always projected itself, including during the tenure of the present dispensation, as a country which abides by international law. Further, it will no longer be information was passed on to India, where senior officials used it to target Canadians with violence through the Lawrence Bishnoi gang. As part of its media strategy, it went to an international news outlet (The Washington Post) to brief it on what, according to Canada, India was up to.An MP asked if they had informed the newspaper that the senior official involved in these Indian actions was the Indian Home Minister. It was Morrison who said that the newspaper asked him if the senior official they had not named in their briefing was the Home Minister and he confirmed that he was.The hearing became a bit partisan between the government parties and the opposition, but, significantly, no opposition MP supported India, except one, who asked if criminals in Canada targeted India and the RCMP chief conceded that it could be so. Despite political differences, the opposition does not wish to be labelled as uncaring for public security because the entire thrust of the Canadian officials was that all that they had done was to protect their people from the threat posed by Indian actions.Canada's record of disregarding India's concerns on Khalistan is undeniable. Canada's entire handling of the Kanishka bombing was racist in nature. Its laws abuse the concept of 'free speech' to permit even the glorification of the violent killing of Indira Gandhi and the calls for the establishment of Khalistan through violence. Its approach on the question of giving visas to Indian officials is intrusive and offensive. At the same time, it has given visas to criminals.All this will, however, not help in meeting the diplomatic challenge posed by the committee hearing. India cannot allow allegations against a senior minister stand. It cannot also allow allegations which are no longer limited to the Nijjar murder case go unanswered. Mere statements will not do.

To begin with, India should be able to show that the material given to it is untenable per se and especially so in a court of law. It also has to take diplomatic action even if that causes trouble to the diaspora and hurts trade. The Canadians have challenged the country's honour and what is left if honour is not defended, even if a cost has to be paid?Diplomacy always requires a cool-headed approach. That does not mean meekness. The Canadian accusations cannot be dismissed as those that are routinely made by inimical neighbours. India must now use all its diplomatic arsenal to respond to the atrocious charges made by Canada which, significantly.

पालूनजी ग्रुप की कंस्ट्रक्शन कंपनी एफकॉन्स इंफ्रा ने सोमवार को लिस्टिंग के जरिए घरेलू शेयर बाजार में दस्तक दे दी। कंपनी के शेयर आज लगभग 8 प्रतिशत के डिस्काउंट के साथ शेयर बाजार में लिस्ट हुए। आईपीओ के तहत कंपनी नें 463 रुपये के भाव पर शेयर जारी किए थे. लेकिन आज बीएसई पर इसकी लिस्टिंग 430.05 रुपये के स्तर पर और एनएसई पर इसकी लिस्टिंग 426 रुपये के स्तर पर हुई। इस तरह लिस्टिंग होने के साथ ही इस कंपनी के निवेशकों को करीब 8 प्रतिशत का नुकसान हो गया। डिस्काउंट में लिस्टिंग होने के सदमे से इस कंपनी के आईपीओ निवेशक उबरे भी नहीं थे कि उन्हें जोरदार बिकवाली का झटका लग गया। शुरुआती कारोबार में ही चौतरफा बिकवाली शुरू हो जाने के कारण ये लुढ़क कर 420.25 रुपये के स्तर तक आ गया। हालांकि, इसके बाद खरीदारों ने

বেঙ্গল সরকার পিছু হটেছে, ঝাড়খণ্ড থেকে বেঙ্গলে যানবাহনের প্রবেশ শুরু

প্রায় ২৪ ঘন্টা পর, বেঙ্গল সরকার পিছু হটেছে এবং ঝাড়খণ্ড থেকে বেঙ্গলে যাওয়া সমস্ত পণ্যবাহী যানবাহনের প্রবেশ শুরু হয়েছে। গত সন্ধ্যা ৭টার পর বেঙ্গল সরকারের আদেশে ঝাড়খণ্ড-বেঙ্গল মথন সীমান্তে পণ্যবাহী যানবাহনের প্রবেশ নিষিদ্ধ করা হয়েছিল।

এর ফলে রাত থেকে দুপুর পর্যন্ত প্রায় ২০ কিমি দীর্ঘ যানজট সৃষ্টি হয়। চালকদের সমস্যার কথা বিবেচনা করে, MASS বেঙ্গল সরকারকে চাপ দেয় ঝাড়খণ্ড সীমান্ত থেকে বেঙ্গলে প্রবেশ করা সমস্ত যানবাহন বন্ধ করার জন্য। এর ফলে, বেঙ্গল সরকার পিছু হটতে বাধ্য হয় এবং অবশেষে ভারী যানবাহনের প্রবেশ আবার স্বাভাবিক হয়।

বেঙ্গল সরকারের এই অনুমতির পর, ট্রাক চালকরা স্বস্তির নিঃশ্বাস ফেলেন। প্রাক্তন নিরসা বিধায়ক অরূপ চ্যাটার্জি ঝাড়খণ্ডের মুখ্যমন্ত্রী হেমন্ত সোরেনের এই উদ্যোগের প্রশংসা করেন। তিনি বলেন, মুখ্যমন্ত্রী হেমন্ত সোরেন এই বিষয়ে ক্রমাগত গুরুত্ব দিয়েছেন। বেঙ্গল সরকারের সাথে ইতিবাচক আলোচনা করার পর বেঙ্গল সরকার নিষেধাজ্ঞা তুলে নেয়। এর পর, সারিতে দাঁড়িয়ে থাকা সমস্ত পণ্যবাহী যানবাহন ধীরে ধীরে বেঙ্গলে প্রবেশ করতে শুরু করেছে। NH-এ দীর্ঘ যানজট এখন সীমিত হচ্ছে এবং যানজটও ভাঙতে শুরু করেছে।

সম্প্রতি ঝাড়খণ্ডে প্রবল বৃষ্টির পর, মাইথন এবং পাঞ্চেত বাঁধের জলস্তর বেড়ে যায় এবং বাঁধ খুলে জল বেঙ্গলের দিকে ছেড়ে দেওয়া হয়, এর পর বেঙ্গল সরকার স্বৈরাচারী মনোভাব গ্রহণ করে এবং ঝাড়খণ্ড থেকে বেঙ্গলে প্রবেশ করা পণ্যবাহী যানবাহন সীমান্তেই থামানোর আদেশ দেয়।

भारत के विनिर्माण क्षेत्र में वृद्धि की रफ्तार अक्तूबर में सुधरी

नई दिल्ली। भारत के विनिर्माण क्षेत्र की वृद्धि दर सितंबर के आठ महीने के निचले स्तर से अक्तूबर में सुधर कर 57.5 हो गई। सोमवार को एक मासिक सर्वेक्षण में यह जानकारी दी गई। मौसमी रूप से समायोजित एचएसबीसी इंडिया मैन्युफैक्चरिंग परचेजिंग मैनेजर्स इंडेक्स (पीएमआई) सितंबर के आठ महीने के निम्नतम स्तर 56.5 से बढ़कर अक्टूबर में 57.5 हो गया, यह आंकड़ा परिचालन स्थितियों में पर्याप्त और त्वरित सुधार के संकेत देता है। पीएमआई की भाषा में, 50 से ऊपर का अंक विस्तार को दर्शाता है, जबकि 50 से नीचे का अंक संकुचन को दर्शाता है। एचएसबीसी के मुख्य भारत अर्थशास्त्री प्रांजुल भंडारी ने कहा, अक्तूबर में भारत के मुख्य विनिर्माण पीएमआई में उल्लेखनीय वृद्धि हुई है।

नई दिल्ली। विदेशी निवेशकों की बिकवाली के कारण घरेल शेयर बाजार के लिए अक्टूबर का महीना सबसे अधिक नुकसाने वाला महीना साबित हुआ है। अक्टूबर के महीने में विदेशी पोर्टफोलियो निवेशकों ने 11.2 अरब डॉलर यानी करीब 94.017 करोड़ रुपये की शुद्ध बिकवाली की। घरेलू शेयर बाजार के इतिहास में किसी एक महीने में विदेशी निवेशकों ने पहली बार इतनी जोरदार बिकवाली की है। इसके पहले मार्च 2020 में विदेशी पोर्टफोलियो निवेशकों ने भारतीय शेयर बाजार से सबसे अधिक 61,973 करोड़ रुपये की शुद्ध निकासी की थी। डिपॉजिटरी के आंकड़ों के अनुसार मौजूदा वित्त वर्ष 2024-25 में अक्टूबर के पहले अप्रैल और मई के महीने में भी

अधिक बिकवाली की थी। इन दोनों महीनो के दौरान विदेशी निवेशकों ने घरेलू शेयर बाजार से 34,252 करोड़ रुपये की शुद्ध निकासी की

> थी। इसके बाद जुन से सितम्बर तक विदेशी निवेशक लगातार लिवाल की भूमिका में बने रहे। सितंबर के महीने में विदेशी निवेशकों ने 57,724 करोड़ रुपये की खरीदारी की थी। घरेलू शेयर बाजार में विदेशी निवेशकों के निवेश का ये पिछले 9 महीने का सबसे ऊंचा स्तर था। लेकिन अक्टूबर के महीने में

विदेशी निवेशकों को द्वारा जमकर की गई बिकवाली के कारण 2024 में उनका कुल निवेश अब सिर्फ 6,593 करोड़ रुपये का रह गया है। अक्टूबर में विदेशी निवेशकों ने कुल 1,13,858 करोड़ रुपये की बिकवाली की, जबकि इस महीने उन्होंने 19,841 करोड

रुपये की खरीदारी भी की। इस तरह खरीद बिक्री को मिलाकर उनकी बिकवाली का कुल

आंकड़ा 94,017 करोड़ रुपये का रहा। इस महीने जहां विदेशी निवेशक भारतीय स्टॉक मार्केट में लगातार बिकवाली करते रहे, वहीं घरेलू संस्थागत निवेशकों ने इस महीने पूरी तरह से लिवाल की भूमिका निभाई। अक्टूबर महीने में घरेलू संस्थागत निवेशकों ने कल 98,400 करोड़ रुपये की खरीदारी की। घरेलू संस्थागत निवेशकों द्वारा किसी एक महीने में ये अभी तक का सबसे बडा

निवेश है। इसके पहले ये रिकॉर्ड भी स्वाभाविक रूप से असर पडेगा।

56,356 करोड़ रुपये का था, जो इसी साल मार्च के महीने में घरेल संस्थागत निवेशकों की खरीदारी के कारण बना था। मार्केट एक्सपर्ट्स का मानना है कि अक्टूबर में हुई जोरदार बिकवाली कां ये क्रम नवंबर में भी जारी रह सकता है। मिडिल ईस्ट में जारी तनाव के जल्दी थमने के आसार नजर नहीं आ रहे हैं। ऐसी स्थिति में वैश्विक अर्थव्यवस्था के लगातार दबाव में बने रहने की आशंका है। इसके साथ ही चीन की अर्थव्यवस्था में राहत पैकेज के ऐलान और अमेरिका में राष्ट्रपति पद के लिए होने वाले चुनाव की वजह से ग्लोबल मार्केट में लगातार उथल-पुथल बनी रहने की संभावना है। हैं, जबकि टाटा कंसल्टेंसी सर्विसेज ऐँसी स्थिति में घरेलू शेयर बाजार पर (टीसीएस), एचडीएफसी बैंक, भारती एयरटेल और इंफोसिस के मार्केट कैप में

एजेंसी नर्ड दिल्ली। घरेल शेयर बाजार में सोमवार से कारोबारी सप्ताह के दौरान हुई जोरदार उठा पटक होने के बावजूद देश की टॉप 10 मोस्ट वैल्यूड कंपनियों में से 6 कपनियों के मार्केट कैंप में इजाफा हो गया। दूसरी ओर, 4 कंपनियों के मार्केट कैप में गिरावट आ गई। पिछले कारोबारी सप्ताह के दौरान 6 कंपनियों के मार्केट कैप में 1.07 लाख करोड़ रुपये से अधिक का इजाफा हो गया। दूसरी ओर, 4 कंपनियों के मार्केट कैप में 95,247 करोड़ रुपये से भी अधिक की कमी हो गई। पिछले कारोबारी सप्ताह के दौरान जिन 6 कंपनियों के मार्केट कैप में बढ़ोतरी हुई, उनमें रिलायस इंडस्ट्रीज, आईसीआईसीआई बैंक. स्टेट बैंक ऑफ इंडिया, आईटीसी, हिंदुस्तान यूनिलीवर और भारतीय जीवन बीमा निगम (एलआईसी) के नाम शामिल

पिछले सप्ताह के दौरान गिरावट दर्ज की साथ 6,13,662.96 करोड़ रुपये और गई।पिछले सप्ताह के दौरान स्टेट बैंक ऑफ हिंदुस्तान यूनिलीवर का मार्केट कैप 2,537.56 करोड रुपये बढ कर इंडिया का मार्केट कैप 36,100.09 करोड़ रुपये बढ कर 7.32.755.93 करोड रुपये 5,96,408.50 करोड़ रुपये हो गया। के स्तर पर पहुंच गया। इसी तरह दूसरी ओर, इंफोसिस का मार्केट

25,775.58 करोड़ रुपये बढ़ कर 9,10,686.85 करोड़ रुपये के स्तर पर पहुंच गया। इसके अलावा भारतीय जीवन बींमा निगम (एलआईसी) का मार्केट कैप 16,887.74 करोड़ रुपये बढ़ कर 5,88,509.41 करोड़ रुपये, रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज का मार्केट कैप 15,393.45 करोड़ रुपये बढ़ कर 18,12,120.05 करोड़ रुपये, आईटीसी का मार्केट कैप 10,671.63 करोड़ रुपये के उछाल के

कैप 38,054.43 करोड़ रुपये घट कर 7,31,442.18 करोड़ रुपये के स्तर पर आ गया। इसी तरह भारती एयरटेल का मार्केट कैप 27,299.54 करोड़ रुपये घट कर 9,20,299.35 करोड़ रुपये के स्तर पर पहुंच गया। इसके अलावा, टाटा कंसलटेंसी सर्विसेज (टीसीएस) का मार्केट कैप 26,231.13 करोड़ रुपये घट कर 14,41,952.60 करोड़ रुपये और एचडीएफसी बैंक का मार्केट कैप 3,662.78 करोड़ रुपये घट कर 13,26,076.65 करोड़ रुपये के स्तर पर आ गया। मार्केट कैप के लिहाज से रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज 18,12,120.05 करोड़ रुपये के बाजार पूंजीकरण (मार्केट कैप) के साथ देश की सबसे अधिक मार्केट कैप वाली कंपनी रही।

शुरुआती कारोबार में शेयर बाजार पर बिकवाली का जोरदार दबाव, सेंसेक्स और निफ्टी में बड़ी गिरावट

नई दिल्ली। घरेलू शेयर बाजार में आज शरुआती कारोबार के दौरान जबरदस्त दबाव बना हुआ नजर आ रहा है। आज बाजार में सपाट स्तर पर मिले-जुले कारोबार की शुरुआत हुई थी। बाजार खुलते ही बिकवाली का जबरदस्त दबाव बन जाने के कारण शेयर बाजार में 1.35 प्रतिशत से भी अधिक की गिरावट आ गई। पहले एक घंटे का कारोबार होने के बाद सेंसेक्स 1.35 प्रतिशत और

निफ्टी 1.38 प्रतिशत की कमजोरी के साथ कारोबार कर रहे थे। शुरुआती एक घंटे का कारोबार होने के बाद स्टॉक मार्केट के दिग्गज शेयरों में से महिंद्रा एंड महिंद्रा, सिप्ला, डॉ. रेड्रीज लेबोरेट्रीज, टेक महिंद्रा और इंडसइंड बैंक के शेयर 2.37 प्रतिशत से लेकर 0.41 प्रतिशत की मजबूती के साथ कारोबार कर रहे थें। दूसरी ओर बजाज ऑटो, हीरो मोटोकॉर्प, बीपीसीएल, सन फार्मास्यूटिकल

विदेशी निवेशकों ने लिवाली से

और रिलायंस इंडस्ट्रीज के शेयर 3.96 प्रतिशत से लेकर 2.70 प्रतिशत की गिरावट के साथ कारोबार करते हुए नजर आ रहे थे।अभी तक के कारोबार में स्टॉक मार्केट में 2,466 शेयरों में एक्टिव ट्रेडिंग हो रही थी। इनमें से 430 शेयर मुनाफा कमा कर हरे निशान में कारोबार कर रहे थे, जबकि 2,036 शेयर नुकसान उठा कर लाल निशान में कारोबार कर रहे थे। इसी तरह सेंसेक्स में शामिल 30 शेयरों में से

3 शेयर लिवाली के सपोर्ट से हरे निशान में बने हुए थे। दूसरी ओर 27 शेयर बिकवाली के दबाव में लाल निशान में कारोबार कर रहे थे। जबकि निफ्टी में शामिल 50 शेयरों में से 6 शेयर हरे निशान में और 44 शेयर लाल निशान में कारोबार करते नजर आ रहे थे। बीएसई का सेंसेक्स आज 10.98 अंक की मामूली कमजोरी के साथ 79,713.14 अंक के स्तर पर खुला। कारोबार की शुरुआत होते ही बाजार पर पूरी तरह से मंदड़ियों ने अपना दबाव बना दिया, जिसकी वजह से इस सचकांक में जोरदार गिरावट आ गई। हालांकि खरीदारों ने बीच-बीच में लिवाली करने की कोशिश भी की। इसके बावजूद इस सूचकांक की चाल में सुधार नहीं हो सका। बाजार में लगातार हो रही बिकवाली के कारण इस सूचकांक की गिरावट लगातार बढ़ती गई, जिससे थोड़ी देर में ही ये सूचकांक 79 हजार अंक के स्तर को भी तोड़ते हुए और नीचे गिर

गया। बाजार में लगातार जारी खरीद बिक्री के बीच पहले 1 घंटे का कारोबार होने के बाद सुबह 10-15 बजे सेंसेक्स 1,073.19 अंक की गिरावट के साथ 78,650.93 अंक के स्तर पर कारोबार कर रहा था सेंसेक्स की विपरीत एनएसई के निफ्टी ने आज 11.40 अंक की मामूली बढ़त के साथ 24,315.75 अंक के स्तर से कारोबार की शुरुआत की। बाजार खुलते ही बिकवाली का जोरदार दबाव बन

कमजोरी के साथ 23,969.95 अंक के स्तर पर कारोबार कर रहा था। इसके पहले पिछले सप्ताह शुक्रवार के दिन हुए मुहूर्त ट्रेडिंग के बाद सेंसेक्स 335.06 अंक यानी 0.42 प्रतिशत की मजबूती के साथ 79,724.12 अंक के स्तर पर बंद हुआ था। वहीं निफ्टी ने 99 अंक यानी 0.41 प्रतिशत की तेजी के साथ 24,304.35 अंक के स्तर पर स्पेशल मुहुर्त ट्रेडिंग का अंत किया था।

हफ्ते में पाएं लाइट कमिल के न

डार्क स्पॉट, फ्रेकल्स और बेजान त्वचा ! मौसम के बदलाव के कारण त्वचा ने न जाने ऐसी कितनी समस्याएं झेली होंगी। लेकिन अब समय है उनसे निपटने और खोई हुई रंगत वापस पाने का।

जैसे-जैसे हमारी उम्र बढ़ती जाती है, स्किन टोन भी बदलती जाती है। झाइयां, रूखी त्वचा और डार्क स्पॉट साफनजर आने लगते हैं और त्वचा उतनी साफऔर गोरी नहीं रह जाती। उस पर सीजन का असर भी होता है। विंटर में सनस्क्रीन क्रीम शायद ही

कोई इस्तेमाल करता है। साथ ही खुली ठंडी हवाएं त्वचा की पहुंचाती हैं। कॉम्प्लेक्शन डल कर देती हैं। सामान्य और रूखी त्वचा पर खास तौर पर इनका असर होता है। इसलिए अगर आप अपनी रंगत को निखारना चाहती हैं तो ब्यूटी एक्सपर्ट अंबिका पिल्लै की ये ट्रिक्स अपनाइए और खोई हुई रंगत वापस पाइए। सनब्लॉक गोरी रंगत पाने का सबसे आसान उपाय है रोज

ऊपरी परत को काफी हद तक नुकसान सनब्लॉक का इस्तेमाल।

> इसलिए ऐसा मॉयस्चराइजर लें जिसमें एसपीएफ 15 या उससे भी अधिक हो। सुबह चेहरा धोने के बाद इसे लगाना न भूलें। सनब्लॉक न सिर्फ आपकी त्वचा को डार्क होने से बचाता है, नुकसानदेह यूवी किरणों से त्वचा के कैंसर और आकस्मिक झुर्रियों से भी बचाता है। अपने हाथों पर भी सनब्लॉक जरूर लगाएं।

एक्सफोलिएट

हफ्ते में एक बार एक्सफोलिएशन से त्वचा के डेड सेल्स निकल जाते हैं और वह गोरी-चमकदार हो जाती है। 2 टेबल स्पून ओटमील में 2 टेबल स्पून ब्राउन शुगर व 1/4 कप दूध मिलाकर पेस्ट बनाएं। इससे गोलाई में घुमाते हुए स्क्रब करें। धोकर मॉयस्चराइजर लगाएं।

मारक पॉवर

गोरी रंगत पाने के लिए घर पर यह मास्क तैयार करें-चंदन पाउडर+नीबू का रस+टमाटर का रस+खीरे का रस बराबर मात्रा में लेकर पेस्ट बनाएं। चेहरे पर लगाकर सूखने दें। धोकर मॉयस्चराइजर लगाएं ताकि त्वचा की नमी बरकरार रहे।

आपकी दोस्त जो चाहे और जब चाहे जी भरकर खा सकती है। बावजूद इसके वह छरहरी भी बनी रह सकती है, लेकिन चाकलेट की एक बाइट खाकर ही आप के वजन में इजाफा हो जाता है। कारण, छरहरा होना भी एक आनुवांशिक खासियत है।

जर्मनी के अध्ययनकर्ताओं ने कद के लिहाज से महिलाओं के वजन और उनके जीन्स में वैज्ञानिक संबंध खोजने का दावा किया है। वैज्ञानिकों की टीम इस नतीजे पर पहुंची है कि मुस्कान और आंखों की रंगत की तरह छरहरापन भी अपने आपमें आनुवांशिक देन है। अध्ययन के नतीजों को दो खबरों के तौर पर बांटा है- बुरी खबर और अच्छी खबर। बुरी खबर यह कि वजन सहित शारीरिक बनावट की ज्यादातर विशेषताएं आनुवांशिक आधारित हैं। अच्छी खबर यह है कि महिलाओं के लिए आनुवांशिक आधार पर शारीरिक गठन के खिलाफ जाने, इसके लिए कुछ करने के अवसर अब भी बरकरार हैं।

अभी तक वैज्ञानिक इस बात को लेकर आश्वस्त नहीं थे कि परिवेशीय और आनुवांशिक पहलू महिलाओं की कद-काठी की संरचना में किस हद तक भूमिका निभाते हैं। वैज्ञानिकों द्वारा एक अतिरिक्त शोध को भी अंजाम दिया गया है। यह परीक्षण एक न एक दिन महिलाओं के वजन में कमी के रास्ते खोजने में मददगार साबित होगा।

वैज्ञानिकों ने चेतावनी दी है कि वजन कम करने को लेकर महिलाओं को यह बात जरूर मालम होनी चाहिए कि अपने शरीर के वजन को नियंत्रित करने के लिए उन्हें करना क्या चाहिए. खासकर जब उम्र अपना असर दिखाने लगे। बढ़ती उम्र के साथ वजन कम होने की संभावना भी कम होती जाती है, ऐसे में बहुत अधिक उम्मीद पालना खुद को परेशानी में डालना होगा।

AUS vs PAK: Babar Azam returns for Pakistan with 37 vs Australia at MCG

New Delhi. Babar Azam made a reasonable return for Pakistan in international cricket in the first ODI against Australia on Monday, November 4 at the iconic Melbourne Cricket Ground. Babar scored 37 runs off 44 balls with four fours before Adam Zampa dismissed him against the run of play.

Australia vs Pakistan, 1st ODI Updates

- After being asked to bat first, Pakistan lost the early wicket of Saim Ayub, who scored only a single on his ODI debut before Mitchell Starc cleaned him up. Pakistan also lost Abdullah Shafique cheaply, but Babar put his head down and played some glorious shots. The 30-year-old Babar dealt in singles early in his knock before collecting his first boundary with an ondrive off Pat Cummins. In the last ball of the same over, Babar creamed Cummins through the off-side for another boundary.
- In the penultimate ball of the 11th over, Babar pulled Mitchell Starc through the mid-wicket boundary for a four. Then, in the last ball of the 16th over from Sean Abbott, Babar dished out a cut shot through third man to collect his fourth boundary of the innings.But Zampa cut short his stay in the middle. In the 18th over, Zampa ran through his defence and rattled his woodwork. Babar tried to go on to the backfoot to a ball that wasn't overly short and was beaten all ends up. He went for a flick, but saw his stumps rattled.Babar was also involved in a partnership of 39 runs for the third wicket with Mohammad Rizwan, the newlyappointed skipper of the Pakistan whiteball team. With Babar's dismissal, Pakistan lost their third wicket with 63 on the board in 17.4 overs.

Babar recently lost his place in the national Test team when Pakistan faced England in the three-match ODI series. Babar will be expected to score big in the last two ODIs in Adelaide and Perth.

Sunil Gavaskar urges India to play warm up game before Australia Test series

New Delhi. Legendary India batter Sunil Gavaskar has urged team India to play a

Spooked by turn: Once India's strength, spin is now their kryptonite

India vs New Zealand: Indian batters can no longer dominate spin. By preparing rank-turners, India have been shooting themselves in their foot. The 0-3 humiliation in the recentlyconcluded home Test series raises concerning questions.

New Delhi. Spin to win" is no longer India's mantra at home. Whenever they have rolled out spin-friendly track, leave alone dust bowls, it has often been India who found themselves in trouble. This was starkly evident when New Zealand stunned India in Pune and Mumbai after initially troubling Rohit Sharma's men with pace in Bengaluru.A 3-0 result in favor of Indiaseemed like a foregone conclusion. Few could have imagined that New Zealand would inflict a whitewash on Indian soil.India's proud record of 18 successive series victories at home came to a sudden halt in one of the most sensational ways. The hunters became the hunted, as a resilient group of New Zealand cricketers outperformed their Indian counterparts in every department of the game. One glaring deficiency was India's handling of spin. Over the past few years, it has been an open secret that India's dominance in spinfriendly conditions is fading-a reality that the Indian team management has been reluctant to fully acknowledge."There is a misconception that India is good at playing spin. They are like everyone else. Gone are the days of Sachin, Ganguly, or Dravid. Now, they struggle against good spinners. We saw that in the IPL; as soon as the ball started to spin, they began to falter," said former New Zealand bowler Simon Doull after the second Test in Pune.Before examining historical data, recent numbers from the three-Test series tell a compelling story.

CAN'T PLAY SPIN ANYMORE?

While the extreme nature of the pitches is certainly a factor, India's approach with the bat was particularly alarming, especially in the recently concluded Test series.

Barring Rishabh Pant, no Indian batter scored more than 200 runs in the series, while three New Zealand batters-Rachin Ravindra (266), Will Young (244), and Devon Conway (227)-did so.Only one Indian batter, Yashasvi Jaiswal, faced more than 300 deliveries in the series, whereas three New Zealand batters managed that feat.India's risk-laden approach was hard to understand. Outside of Shubman Gill, Yashasvi Jaiswal, and Pant, most Indian batters seemed unable to trust their defense and failed to hang in.

IND v NZ, 3rd Test in Mumbai: Highlights India's two big guns-Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli-had a disappointing series. Rohit faced just 133 deliveries, while Kohli managed 173.Former oener Virender Sehwag did not hold back after the 3-0 defeat, stating, "The skill to play spin certainly needs an upgrade. Some experimentation is good for shorter formats, but in Test cricket, needless experimentation is poor."Kohli's struggles against spin have become a major concern. Rohit, who scored 500 runs against England in a five-Test series earlier this year, managed just 91 runs across three Tests against New Zealand.The famed lower-middle order also failed to contribute. India missed Axar Patel with the bat; he averages over 35 while batting at No. 6, 7, 8, and 9 in Tests.

- GONE IN MINUTES: India's COLLAPSES
- Pune, 1st innings: 53 for 6
- Pune, 2nd innings: 50 for 5

- Mumbai, 1st innings: 83 for 6

- Mumbai, 2nd innings: 16 for 5 Take Virat Kohli's case, for example. His struggles against spin since 2020 are clear; his average in India has plummeted from 72.45 (2013-2019) to 32.86, with 24 of his 57 dismissals during this period coming against spin. Kohli's performance against left-arm spin is particularly alarming, averaging just 20.41 against this type of bowler, with 12 dismissals out of 58 since 2020. In the recent home season alone, he was out four times to left-arm spinners, including once each to Shakib Al Hasan and Ajaz Patel, and twice to Mitchell Santner.On the other hand, Rohit Sharma paid the price for being overly aggressive. Despite trusting his defense against England earlier this year, he tried to hit his way out of trouble.

. The Indian Premier League (IPL) mega auction is tentatively scheduled for November 24 and 25 in Saudi Arabia, though an official confirmation from the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) is still awaited.

New Delhi. The Indian Premier League (IPL) 2025 mega auction is expected to take place on November 24 and 25 in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. Although the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) has yet to officially confirm the location or dates, sources indicate that final arrangements are in progress and an announcement is anticipated soon.However, scheduling complications have arisen, as the auction dates coincide with India's first Test match against Australia in Perth, set for November 22 to 26. Disney Star, which holds the broadcast rights for both the IPL and the India-

Australia Test series, is keen to avoid a direct overlap between the events. Thankfully, due to the time difference with Australia, the auction, if held in the afternoon (IST), would likely avoid clashes with the match broadcast.

With the IPL 2025 mega auction around the corner, anticipation is high as franchises prepare to make pivotal bids on high-profile players. Among the standout names are Rishabh Pant, Shreyas Iyer, KL Rahul, Arshdeep Singh, and Ishan Kishan, each renowned for their impact in the T20 format. These players bring a mix of batting prowess, leadership qualities, and sharp fielding, making them invaluable assets for any franchise aiming for a strong 2025 season.While several franchises have already declared their retentions, these five players will undoubtedly be at the center of intense bidding wars. Teams are strategizing to secure the best players within their budget, and these star players are likely to command some of the highest prices. Pant's explosive wicketkeepingbatsman role, Iyer's dynamic leadership potential, and Rahul's consistency with the bat are especially appealing attributes in a fast-paced tournament like the IPL.Reports suggest that BCCI officials have already conducted preliminary visits to Saudi Arabia to assess potential venues. A second delegation is expected to travel to the Gulf nation on Monday to finalize details. While Jeddah was initially considered, Riyadh, the capital, has emerged as the most likely host city for the two-day auction. The BCCI also explored other international locations like Dubai, Singapore, and even Vienna, but Saudi Arabia appears to have been selected as the ideal venue.

Given this move outside India, IPL franchises are urging the BCCI to finalize the venue and dates promptly to allow enough time for travel and logistical arrangements. With a retention deadline of October 31, teams are working to finalize their player lists before shifting focus to the upcoming auction.

New Delhi. Liverpool's Ibrahima Konaté has reassured fans that the injury he sustained during the team's recent 2-1 victory over Brighton & Hove Albion will not keep him sidelined. The 25-year-old French international was substituted at halftime after suffering a knock to his arm but has since downplayed concerns over his fitness. confirming that he will be fit to play in Liverpool's next match.Konaté's injury initially raised fears of a serious issue, as he was taken off and replaced by Joe Gomez at the interval. However, following a medical scan on Sunday, Konaté shared a positive update on social media. "Thanks for all the messages of support. My injury isn't serious thankfully. I had a scan today and it confirmed there is no break. I'll be ready for the next game," he posted on Instagram, much to the relief of Liverpool fans.

warm-up game ahead of the five-match Test series against Australia. Notably, India were supposed to play an intra-squad warm-up fixture with India A which they've cancelled. However, Gavaskar has advised the team to play warm-up fixtures between matches. The former batter mentioned that the youngsters who've never played in Australia should acclimatize themselves to conditions. Indian youngsters such as Dhruv Jurel, Sarfaraz Khan and Yashasvi Jaiswal will be playing their first Test in Australia and hence could take some time to get used to the pace and bounce."I really do believe that they should have a warm-up game. In the gaps between Test matches, they really should have warm-up games. Not necessarily for the senior players. But for the junior players who have never played in Australia before. For the Dhruv Jurels, all these young batters. Even against an Australia A team or a state side like Queensland. Juniors must be given the opportunity to get used to the bounce and pitches in Australia," Gavaskar told Indian Express.Further speaking ahead, Gavaskar advised India to practice as much as they can and focus on playing regular bowling instead of throw downs.

India's hopes of playing WTC final diminishing

"Just believe in yourself. Practice as much as you can. I think there is some merit in facing throwdowns. But it is more important to play regular bowling. Face the quicker bowlers. Not (Jasprit) Bumrah, of course, because Bumrah can kill you. But you can ask others to bowl from 20 yards instead of 22 yards. So therefore, the ball comes on to the bat quickly," he added.Meanwhile, after suffering a humiliating whitewash against New Zealand on home soil, India find themselves in a precarious position in the World Test Championship (WTC) standings. The Rohit Sharma-led side is on the second spot in the standings having a points percentage of 58.33% and now need to win four out of their next five matches to qualify for the WTC final on their own

WTA Finals: Iga Swiatek scripts unreal comeback to beat Barbora Krejcikova

World No.2 Iga Swiatek made a stupendous comeback in her WTA Finals match on Sunday, November 3 against Wimbledon champion Barbora Krejcikova. Swiatek won the match 4-6, 7-5, 6-2 in Riyadh.

Lew Delhi. Iga Swiatek pulled off a comeback for the ages after beating Barbora Krejcikova in the WTA Finals 2024. On New Delhi. Sunday, November 3, the World No.2 came back from 4-6, 0-3 down to take down her opponent in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. It took Swiatek two hours and 33 minutes to win the match 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.Swiatek, who was playing her first WTA match after her US Open 2024 exit back in September, looked "rusty" to begin with. Krejcikova, who won the Wimbledon this year after beating Jasmine Paolini in the final, was looking set for a stupendous victory before losing her way

'It wasn't easy. At the beginning I felt a bit rusty, but I'm happy that I found a way to play a little bit more solid. I didn't feel great (at the beginning). Barbora also used that.

The score went her way pretty quickly. I knew it was tight even in the first set and I had my chances so I just wanted to use them the next time," Swiatek said. I heard it for sure. I missed that. In tough moments today when I heard you guys screaming, it helped me. Thank you for the support. Even though at the beginning my game wasn't nice, you guys still believed," Swiatek added.After a clinical showing in the first set, Krejcikova broke Swiatek's serve twice in the second. But the Polish star held her nerve to force the deciding set. Swiatek returned to her best in the third set, taking a 5-0 lead. Krejcikova struggled with her lower back and that did not help her. After Aryna Sabalenka defeated Qinwen Zheng on Saturday, Swiatek needs to beat both Jessica Pegula and Coco Gauff to have any chance of getting back his No.1 ranking.

after teammate Virgil van Dijk inadvertently stepped on Konaté's arm in a crowded goalmouth scramble, led to speculation of a potential fracture. However, sports physios have suggested that it may only be a minor bone bruise. "The recovery time for this would be less than a week," speculated a physio on social media, adding that Liverpool's medical team would likely monitor Konaté closely to avoid aggravating the injury. With Liverpool already managing a number of injuries, including those of Alisson Becker, Conor Bradley, Harvey Elliott, Diogo Jota, and Federico Chiesa, the news of Konaté's availability will be a welcome boost for the club as they prepare for their upcoming Champions League match against Bayer Leverkusen on Tuesday. This will be followed by a crucial Premier League clash with Aston Villa at Anfield on Saturday.

While Konaté has expressed his eagerness to play, Liverpool's medical team may still choose to exercise caution given his history with injuries. The team has depth in the form of Joe Gomez and promising youngster Jarell Quansah, who are both prepared to step in if Konaté's wrist requires further recovery time.

Mitchell Starc joins elite Australia list after deadly new ball spell vs Pakistan

-Star Australia fast bowler Mitchell Starc completed 100 ODI wickets on home soil during the first ODI against Pakistan at the Melbourne Cricket Ground.

New Delhi. Star Australian seamer Mitchell Starc joined elite company after his marvellous new ball spell against Pakistan in the first ODI on Monday, November 04 at Melbourne Cricket Ground, Melbourne. The left-arm speedster was breathing fire with the new ball as he troubled the Pakistan openers Saim Ayyub and Abdullah Shafique in a hostile spell.

The veteran seamer was rewarded for his consistency as he managed to dismiss both openers and completed 100 wickets on Australian soil in ODIs. Starc became the sixth bowler from his country to achieve the feat and joined an elite company with legends namely Brett Lee, Glenn McGrath, Shane Warne, Craig McDermott and Steve Waugh.Starc started the proceedings by dismissing debutant Saim Ayyub in his second over who got an inside edge back onto his stumps. He further got rid of Abdullah Shafique who mistakenly ended up edging him to wicketkeeper Josh Inglis while trying to leave the delivery.Later, he shattered Shaheen Afridi's stumps to register his third wicket of the match and finished with figures of 3/33 in ten overs. Meanwhile, Pakistan struggled throughout their innings as they failed to keep the run-flow going. After losing both openers on 24, new whiteball captain Mohammad Rizwan joined star batter Babar Azam at the crease.

Mohammad Rizwan scored 44 on his ODI captaincy debutThe duo added 39 runs for the third wicket to calm the nerves in the dressing room but failed to take it ahead as Zampa cleaned up Babar for 37 (44). After losing his partner, Rizwan continued to occupy the crease at one end and took the scoreboard forward.He was dismissed six runs short of his half-century falling prey to Marnus Labuschagne for 44 (71). Agha Salman (12 off 29) and Shaheen Afridi (24 off 19) also made valuable contributions for Pakistan down the order. The visitors were 172/7 after 41 overs with Naseem Shah (13*) and Irfan Khan (20*) at the crease.

'Shubh Navratri' Post Has Our Attention, Fans Say 'Beauty In Saree'

After being away from the limelight for some time, Katrina Kaif was recently spotted at a private airport on Friday. Her beautiful saree and elegant look led people to stop and stare at her. Katrina and other popular faces in Bollywood jetted off to Kochi, Kerala, to attend the grand Navratri party hosted by the Kalyanaram family, owners of the jewellery brand Kalyan Jewellers. On Saturday, Katrina delighted her fans by giving a closer look at her beautiful outfit from yesterday's festivities. The actress wore a multi-coloured silk saree from Tarun Tahiliani's collection, which featured heavy embroidery and embellishments. She ditched heavy jewellery and opted for golden jhumkas to finalise her look. Sharing a series of pictures of herself from various angles. Katrina wrote, "গুম नवरात्ररि....," wishing her more than 80 million followers on the occasion of the auspicious nine-day festival.

Soon enough, her fans reciprocated her message and took to the comment section of the post to react to her beautiful post. One of her fans said, "Prettiest woman in the world." Another said, "This beauty never fails to impress her fans with her immense stylish outfits. She is one of those who really knows how a girl should wear a saree like a saree only. So minimalistic and yet so graceful." Someone also noted, "Beauty In Saree." Meanwhile, director Zoya Akhtar and Huda Beauty's official IG page also took notice of Katrina's post, and they reacted to it.

Just days ago, Katrina, the founder of Kay Beauty, had a one-on-one conversation with Huda Beauty's founder, Huda Kattan. They discussed their respective experiences in the beauty industry and also spoke about society's unrealistic beauty standards. The Bollywood actress shared an excerpt of her conversation with the beauty mogul on her Instagram post. In a note accompanying the video, Katrina wrote, "When Kay met Huda. From contouring conversations to highlight moments, the iconic Huda & I discuss our experiences as beauty founders, the pressure to conform to unreal beauty standards, the social media pressure cooker and authentic expression ...... who knew that Makeup would be the best therapy session ever!"

Katrina Kaif launched her beauty brand Kay Beauty in 2019 in partnership with beauty retailer Nykaa. Since then, the brand has built a loyal customer base and is going strong each day. On the other hand, Katrina was last seen in the film Merry Christmas, released in December last year.
