How Social Media Restricted Palestinian News And Boosted Israel's

Facebook has been accused of severely restricting Palestinian news outlets' ability to reach their audience during the Israel-Gaza war. A BBC analysis of Facebook data revealed a steep drop in audience engagement for newsrooms in the Palestinian territories, including Gaza and the West Bank, since October 2023.This decline in engagement is surprising, given that social media has become a vital source of updates for those wanting to hear more voices from inside Gaza. Facebook pages for news outlets like Palestine TV, Wafa news agency, and Palestinian Al-Watan News have been crucial in providing updates to millions of followers worldwide.Since the war began, outside reporters have been allowed to enter Gaza if escorted by the Israeli army.Although during wars, audience engagement is expected to rise, the data analysis showed a 77% decline in engagement for Palestinianbased news organisations, while Israeli news organisations saw a 37% increase in engagement during the same period.Meta, Facebook's owner, denies deliberately suppressing particular voices, stating that any such implication is "unequivocally false".Palestine TV has 5.8 million followers on Facebook and journalists working there showed a 60% drop in the number of people seeing their posts."Interaction was completely restricted, and our posts stopped reaching people," says Tariq Ziad, a journalist at the channel.Shadow-ban is when a social media platform bans a user's content without notifying the user, and Palestinian journalists fear the same has happened with their online content.BBC ran a data analysis on 20 Israeli news channels such as Yediot Ahronot, Israel Hayom and Channel 13, which also posted war-related content but their audience engagement increased by 37%. However, leaked documents and internal messages suggest that Instagram, another Meta-owned platform, increased its moderation of Palestinian user comments after October 2023. This change was made to respond to a "spike in hateful content" coming out of the Palestinian territories, according to Meta.

New Russian Law Will Remove Taliban's "Terrorist" Label, HTS Could Be Next

Moscow. The Russian parliament has passed a law that would allow courts to suspend bans on groups designated as terrorist organisations by Moscow. The new law, passed by parliament's lower house, the State Duma, paved the way for Moscow to normalise ties with the Afghan Taliban and potentially with the new leadership of Syria.It outlines a legal mechanism for groups to be removed from the country's official banned list of outlawed "terrorist" organisations by order of a court if they cease terrorist-related activity. Under the law, Russia's Prosecutor General could file a request with a court outlining that a banned group has "ceased" its activities "in support of terrorism." A judge could then rule to remove the designation.

Airstrikes hit Yemen's capital, port city after Houthi attack targets Israel

DUBAI. A series of intense airstrikes shook Yemen's rebel-held capital and a port city early Thursday, shortly after a Houthi missile targeted central Israel.It wasn't immediately clear who launched the strikes on Sanaa, which the Iranian-backed Houthis have held for over a decade.

The Houthis also reported strikes in Hodeida as well. But initial information on the targets of the attack and the timing suggested Israel may have conducted the assault.Houthi-controlled media reported the strikes, but offered no immediate information on casualties nor damage. The Houthi-controlled satellite channel al-Masirah said that some of the strikes targeted power stations in the capital, as well as the Ras Isa oil terminal on the Red Sea.Rebel-held Hodeida, some 145 kilometers (90 miles) southwest of Sanaa, has been key for food shipments into Yemen as its decadelong war has gone on. There's also longstanding suspicion that weapons from Iran have been transferred through the port. The strikes happened just after the Israeli military said its air force intercepted a missile launched from Yemen before it entered the country's territory. Rocket and missile sirens were sounded following the possibility of falling debris from the interception," the Israeli military said. Sirens sounded near Tel Aviv and the surrounding areas, and a large explosion was heard overhead at the time. The Houthis did not immediately claim the missile attack, but said an important military statement would be issued in the coming hours, following a pattern of how they claim their assaults.

The Israeli military did not respond to a request for comment. Israel has struck the Houthis in the past over attacks targeting Israel and in recent weeks have threatened to again attack the rebels. Israel previously struck Hodeida and its oil infrastructure in July after a Houthi drone attack killed one person and wounded 10 in Tel Aviv.

American forces have also launched a series of strikes on the Houthis over nearly a year due to Houthi attacks on shipping in the Red Sea corridor. On Monday, the U.S. military's Central Command said it hit "a key commandand-control facility" operated by the Houthis in Sanaa, later identified as the al-Ardi complex once home to the government's Defense Ministry.But on Thursday, a U.S. military official said the attacks weren't carried out by the Americans, speaking on condition of anonymity to discuss the ongoing strikes.

Indian-Origin Man Jailed For Life For Mother's Murder At UK Home

London. A 48-year-old Indian-origin man who attacked his 76-year-old mother in their family home in Leicester, eastern England, has been found guilty of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. Sindeep Singh was arrested after Leicestershire Police discovered the deceased, Bhajan Kaur, with significant injuries to her head and face on May 13. Following a 16-day trial at Leicester Crown Court, Singh was found guilty of murder and sentenced this week to life in prison with a minimum term of The in prison with a minimum term of 31 years behind bars before being considered for parole. "This was a deeply disturbing case which uncovered the lengths Singh went to, to cover his tracks," said Detective Chief Inspector Mark Sinski from the East Midlands Special Operations Unit Murder Investigation Team. "After killing his mother Singh went out and killing his mother, Singh went out and bought a sack barrow and spade to dig up the garden. He intended burying Mrs Kaur's body but was disturbed before he could do that. The house had been cleaned and there was a very strong smell of disinfectant. There was clear evidence showing the planning after her death," he said.

The detective revealed that when Singh was approached by officers, he provided false details and initially claimed to have no knowledge of the incident. But during the police investigation, it was established that Singh acted following several arguments over the ownership of the family home, which he believed had been left to him by his late father.

This has been an extremely distressing and challenging time for Mrs Kaur's family, they have been left devastated at the loss of their dear mother. They have shown immense courage and dignity throughout the investigation and subsequent legal proceedings," he said. "It is unfortunate that this case ended with a trial and the family had to sit through the proceedings and listen to the details of Mrs Kaur's final moments. This is in no way easy for them – they've lost a loved one and will now have to live with the fact that Mrs Kaur's life was takn by one of their own," he added. The court heard how previously Kaur had reported Singh for his behaviour and he was even arrested on suspicion of controlling and coercive behaviour and released on bail while those enquiries were ongoing. The investigation revealed that Singh had been living in his car on the driveway of the home, and on the day of the murder, Kaur had let him into the house. CCTV evidence showed Singh leaving the property later on the same day and going to purchase a sack and spade from a nearby shop. He then returned to the house on Bolsover Street and when relatives were unable to get hold of Kaur, they went to her home where they discovered her body. When police officers arrived at the scene, they also found that ground in the rear garden had been dug up creating a large hole. - The Taliban was in the first batch of groups to be added to the banned list, in February 2003, and Syria's HTS was added in 2020. The Kremlin has been courting relations with the Taliban after the Islamist group seized power in August 2021 as US-led forces staged a chaotic withdrawal after 20 years of war. President Vladimir Putin said in July that the Taliban was now an ally in fighting terrorism.

- However, the Taliban's expected removal from Russia's terrorist registry would not amount to a formal recognition of its government, or what it calls the "Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan" - a move no country in the world has yet made.
- There are also calls in Moscow for the removal of Syrian group Hayat Tahrir al-Sham (HTS)--that spearheaded the toppling of President Bashar al-Assad this month-- from Moscow's list of banned terror groups. The leader of Russia's Muslim region of Chechnya, Ramzan Kadyrov, on Monday said Russia needed ties to the new Syrian authorities to ensure stability and prevent a humanitarian catastrophe. Kadyrov is seen as a close Putin ally.

UK Pledges New $286 Million Defence Package For Ukraine

- London.Britain on Thursday unveiled a package of £163;225 million ($286 million) in new military aid to Ukraine for next year, including drones, boats and air defence systems. The move came after the UK's Defence Secretary John Healey visited Kyiv on Wednesday, holding talks with his Ukrainian counterpart Rustem Umerov and vowing to step up British support to Ukraine in 2025. Three years since Russian President Vladimir Putin ordered the invasion of Ukraine "the depths of his miscalculation are clearer than ever, as the brave people of Ukraine continue to defy all expectations with their unbreakable spirit," Healey said.
- "But they cannot go it alone," Healey added, vowing the UK's support for Kyiv was "ironclad" and Britain would always stand "shoulder to shoulder to ensure Putin cannot win".
- In July, the new Labour government vowed to commit £163;3 billion a year in military aid to Ukraine until 2030-2031. The new package will include £92 million for equipment to bolster Ukraine's navy, including small boats, reconnaissance drones and uncrewed surface vessels, the defence ministry said in a statement.
- A further £163;68 million will be used for air defence equipment including radars, and 1,000 counterdrone electronic warfare systems at a cost of £163;39 million would be supplied to the Ukrainian army.Healey said the UK would also boost a training programme for Ukrainian soldiers run with key allies on British soil known as Operation Interflex, under which 51,000 recruits have been trained since mid-2022."With Putin resorting to sending as many as 2,000 Russian soldiers to their deaths on the battlefield each day, it is critical that Ukraine is supported with a supply of properly trained and equipped soldiers," the ministry statement said.

World Leaders On Speed-Dial: How Elon Musk Is Causing Geopolitical Tremors

Washington DC.It isn't unthinkable that the world's richest person can pull more than just a few strings with top politicians, but Elon Musk seems to be investing himself in the political world with such intensity that analysts now wonder if there is a larger plan.Last week Elon Musk created history by breaking his own previous record and becoming the first person to have a net worth of more than 400 billion dollars. In just six days, he has added nearly another 100 billion ($86 billion) and is knocking on the 500-billion-dollar mark. In the last one year, Musk has added $257 billion to his net worth - $7 billion more than the entire net worth of Jeff Bezos - the second-most richest person globally.But Musk is not just riding the high wave when it comes to business, he is now doing the same in geopolitics. Having being included in the Trump Administration 2.0, Elon Musk finds himself immersed in the world of politics. Though he was deeply involved with Donald Trump's campaign and is partially credited for the latter's win in the US elections, he now seems to be backing - or rather, influencing - leaders from beyond the United States.US DONE, MUSK SETS EYES ON UK

From supporting one firebrand leader to now backing another one - this time in the UK - Elon Musk has held extensive talks with anti-immigration hardliner Nigel Farage. The discussions between the two were largely focused on Musk funding Farage's hard-right party 'Reform UK'.Elon Musk, who now freely uses Donald Trump's Florida resort estate-cum-residence, Mar-a-Lago, as his political office, invited Nigel Farage for a meeting earlier this week.Writing about it in British daily The Telegraph, Mr Farage confirmed that "the issue of money was discussed", though the two could not agree on the amount in question by the end of that meeting. "There will be ongoing negotiations on that score," Mr Farage added.Sharing details about the meeting, that will most certainly raise eyebrows in the UK's two main political party offices - The Labour Party, now in government and the Conservative Party, currently the opposition - Mr Farage mentioned about Elon Musk's disdain for both parties. He stated that Musk "described the Labour and Conservative parties as the uniparty, and left us (Reform Party) in no doubt that he is right behind us."In his article Mr Farage also mentioned that he aims to learn from Elon Musk's cash incentives for people to be encouraged to vote - a strategy that worked for Donald Trump's Republican party during the US elections. Mr Farage stated that "I have come home with copious notes on how they increased turnout, voter registration, and so much more, and all of this I intend to implement as part of the professionalisation of our party.

Elon Musk is reportedly considering an initial donation of $100 million to Nigel Farage's Reform Party.

overhead at the time. The Israeli military did not respond to a request for comment. Israel has struck the Houthis in the past over attacks targeting Israel and in recent weeks have threatened to again attack the rebels. The Houthis have targeted some 100 merchant vessels with missiles and drones since the Israel-Hamas war in the Gaza Strip started in October 2023 after Hamas' surprise attack on Israel. The Houthis have seized one vessel and sunk two in a campaign that has also killed four sailors. Other missiles and drones have either been intercepted by separate USand European-led coalitions in the Red Sea or failed to reach their targets, which have also included Western military vessels. The rebels maintain that they target ships linked to Israel, the US or the United Kingdom to force an end to Israel's campaign against Hamas in Gaza. However, many of the ships attacked have little or no connection to the conflict, including some bound for Iran.

Government funding plan collapses as Trump makes new demands days before shutdown

WASHINGTON. President-elect Donald Trump abruptly rejected a bipartisan plan Wednesday to prevent a Christmastime government shutdown, instead telling House Speaker Mike Johnson and Republicans to essentially renegotiate days before a deadline when federal funding runs out.Trump's sudden entrance into the debate and new demands sent Congress spiraling as lawmakers are trying to wrap up work and head home for the holidays. It leaves Johnson scrambling to engineer a new plan before Friday's deadline to keep government open."Republicans must GET SMART and TOUGH," Trump and Vice President-elect JD Vance said in a statement. The presidentelect made an almost unrealistic proposal that combined some continuation of government funds along with a much more controversial provision to raise the nation's debt limit — something his own party routinely rejects. "Anything else is a betrayal of our country," they wrote.Democrats decried the GOP revolt over the stopgap measure, which would have also provided some $100.4 billion in disaster aid to states hammered by Hurricanes Helene and Milton and other natural disasters."House Republicans have been ordered to shut down the government and hurt everyday Americans all across this country," said House Democratic Leader Hakeem Jeffries.Jeffries said "an agreement is an agreement," and by backing out of it "the House Republicans "will now own any harm that is visited upon the American people."Already, the massive 1,500-page bill was on the verge of collapse, as hard right conservatives rejected the increased spending, egged on by Trump's billionaire ally Elon Musk who rejected the plan almost as soon as it was released late Tuesday night.Rank-and-file lawmakers complained about the extras, which included their first pay-raises in more than a decade — a shock after one of the most unproductive chaotic sessions in modern times.Even the addition of much-needed disaster aid, some $100.4 billion in the aftermath of hurricanes and other natural calamities that ravaged states this year, plus $10 billion in economic assistance for farmers failed to win over the budgetslashing GOP. A number of Republicans had been waiting for Trump to signal whether they should vote yes or no."This should not pass," Musk posted on his social media site X in the wee hours of Wednesday morning.One lawmaker said office phone lines were flooded with calls from constituents"My phone was ringing off the hook," said Rep. Andy Barr, R-Ky. "The people who elected us are listening to Elon Musk."The outcome comes as no surprise for Johnson, who like other Republican House speakers before him, has been unable to convince his majority to go along with the routine needs of federal government operations, which they would prefer to slash. It all shows just how hard it will be for Republicans next year, as they seize control of the House, Senate and White House, to unify and lead the nation. And it underscores how much Johnson and the GOP leaders must depend on Trump's blessing to see any legislative package over the finish line.Musk, who is heading Trump's new Department of Government Efficiency, warned that "Any member of the House or Senate who votes for this outrageous spending bill deserves to be voted out in 2 years!"It's not an idle threat coming from Musk, the world's richest man, who helped bankroll Trump's victory and can easily use his America PAC to make or break political careers.

Vijay Mallya Claims Over Rs 14,000 Cr. Recovered, Seeks Relief from ED & Banks

New Delhi: Fugitive businessman Vijay Mallya has claimed that banks have recovered Rs 14,131.60 crore from him, despite the court-ordered debt being Rs 6,203 crore. Mallya, who remains labeled as an "economic offender," posted his statement on X (formerly Twitter) on Wednesday, questioning the legal justification behind the seizure of more than double the amount of the original debt.

In his post, Mallya referred to the ruling by the Debt Recovery Tribunal, which had set the debt owed by his now-defunct Kingfisher Airlines (KFA) at Rs 6,203 crore, including Rs 1,200 crore in interest. He highlighted Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman's recent announcement in Parliament, which confirmed that the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and banks had recovered Rs 14,131.60 crore from him.

Mallya argued that unless the ED and banks can provide a legal justification for recovering more than twice the debt amount, he is entitled to relief, which he intends to pursue. Notably, on Tuesday, during a discussion in the Lok Sabha, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman detailed the ED's actions in recovering assets linked to economic offenses. She informed the House that the ED had restored assets worth Rs 22,280 crore, covering several significant cases.

Among these, Rs 14,131.6 crore worth of assets from Mallya were returned to public sector banks. Additionally, the ED also recovered Rs 1,052.58 crore from fugitive businessman Nirav Modi.

The Finance Minister also highlighted other notable recoveries, including assets from the National Spot Exchange Ltd (NSEL) scam, the SRS Group, Rose Valley Group, and various other economic offenders, totaling millions of rupees. Sitharaman reiterated the government's commitment to ensuring that those involved in economic crimes do not escape justice. "We are after them and will ensure the money goes back to the banks," she stated. She also addressed concerns over the economic growth, calling the slower second-quarter GDP growth a "temporary blip."

In a horrific maritime disaster, at least 13 persons drowned, including three Indian Navy sailors plus another 99 were rescued from the Arabian Sea when a naval speedboat on engine trials lost control and The sources said that the ferry, 'Neelkamal', abruptly rammed into a passenger ferry, near the Raigad Coast, off Gateway of India, here on Wednesday evening, officials said.

The passenger boat, reported to be a private catamaran named 'Neelkamal', was ferrying around 110 tourists plus five crew members to the world-famous UNESCO Heritage Elephanta Islands, and the disaster occurred around 5:15 p.m., said the BMC Disaster Control.

other ferries in the vicinity showed gruesome shots of people screaming for help, flailing their arms and legs to remain afloat or attempting to hold their near and dear ones from sinking in chilly sea waters.

On receiving the SOS from multiple sources on the disaster, a massive rescue operation was launched by the Indian Navy's four helicopters and 15 other vessels including the Marine Police, Indian Coast Guard, Jawaharlal Nehru Port Authority, along with local fishers and other ferry boats to save the victims.By 9 p.m., the

The owner of the vessel, Rajendra Padte, said that the 'Neelkamal' had departed on its regular tourism voyage to Elephanta Islands around 3.15 p.m. and barely a couple of hours later the tragedy was reported, "but it was not our fault".

Siddaramaiah proposes judicial panel to resolve Waqf land issues in Karnataka

Karnataka. Chief Minister Siddaramaiah proposed forming a committee headed by a retired judge to address concerns over Waqf properties, reiterating that the issue should not be politicised.

During the assembly session on Wednesday, Siddaramaiah responded to the BJP's questions on the Waqf land issue, pointing out that the Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda had already given a detailed explanation. "If the opposition is not satisfied, we are ready to form a committee headed by a retired judge," he said. The Chief Minister clarified that the central government enacted the Waqf Act in 1954, leaving the state unable to amend it. He alleged that the BJP, despite being in power both at the Centre since 2014 and in Karnataka from 2008-2013 and 2019-2023, failed to address the issue. He accused the BJP of creating unnecessary controversy, highlighting their 2014 election manifesto promise to protect Waqf properties.

iddaramaiah claimed that out of the total 1.28 lakh acres, 47,263 acres fall under the Inam Cancellation Act, 23,623 acres under the Land Reforms Act, and 3,000 acres are used for public purposes. However, 17,969 acres have been encroached on by private individuals. "Once registered as Waqf property, it will always be Waqf property," he said, adding that a Supreme Court order mandates its protection.Amid concerns raised by the BJP over eviction notices issued to temples, farmers, and others, Waqf and Minority Affairs Minister BZ Zameer Ahmed Khan assured that such notices would be withdrawn.

Siddaramaiah reiterated that no farmer would be evicted from the land they have been cultivating.BJP legislator Araga Jnanendra demanded the removal of properties listed as Waqf land in government records, arguing that withdrawing notices alone would not solve the problem. Leader of the Opposition R Ashoka pointed out that 110 Kuruba families in Mysuru's Krishna Raja constituency had repeatedly appealed to Siddaramaiah to revoke notices but to no avail.

Udhayanidhi Stalin calls himself 'proud Christian' who also represents all faiths

Tamil Nadu Deputy Chief Minister Udhayanidhi Stalin called himself a "proud Christian" and emphasised on religious unity. He also declared himself common to all faiths, and accused BJP-AIADMK of using religion to divide and undermine constitutional values.

Chennai. Tamil Nadu Deputy Chief Minister Udhayanidhi Stalin reaffirmed his commitment to religious harmony, declaring himself a "proud Christian" while emphasising inclusivity across all faiths. Speaking at a Christmas event, Udhayanidhi reiterated his stance against those who use religion to sow division and spew hatred."Last year, while participating in a Christmas event, I proudly said that I am a Christian, and it immediately irritated several Sanghis. But I am saying this again today: I am a proud Christian," Udhayanidhi said."If you think I am a Christian, then I am a Christian. If you think I am a Muslim, then I am a Muslim. If you think I am a Hindu, I am a Hindu. I am common to everyone. All religions only teach us to show love," he added, stressing unity and inclusivity. The Deputy Chief Minister took aim at those who use religion for political gain, accusing them of spreading hatred and divisiveness. Citing a recent instance involving a judge from Allahabad, he said, "Recently, we even saw a judge speak with animosity towards a religion. An Allahabad judge, while speaking at a recent event, made hate comments against Muslims. We questioned whether such a person should hold the position of a judge. How can you expect justice in his court?"He highlighted the DMK's and Congress's efforts to address the matter, stating, "To remove him, a resolution was brought in the Lok Sabha. Congress and DMK MPs signed in support, but AIADMK MPs didn't sign. AIADMK couldn't support a resolution seeking the removal of a judge who went against the Constitution because they continue to be BJP's slaves.

Karnataka MLA writes to DK Shivakumar over cabinet minister's BJP ties

Karnataka. Whispers of internal rift in Congress resurfaced after a Karnataka Congress MLA accused Davangere district in-charge minister of colluding with BJP to undermine the party.In a letter addressed to Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar, Channagiri MLA Basavaraju V Shivaganga asked that Davangere district incharge minister SS Mallikarjun be immediately replaced. Basavaraju, who is also the Davangere district Kisan Congress chief, in the letter alleged that Mallikarjun was closely aligned with the BJP, causing embarrassment to the ruling party in the district.

He cited a specific case of a transfer of a Public Works Department (PWD) personnel to support his accusation. According to Basavaraju, R Vijay Kumar from Shivamogga was supposed to replace IS Odenapur from Davangere due to family issues. The MLA claimed an order for this transfer was issued, but Mallikarjun allegedly exerted pressure to reverse or block the transfer, causing complications.Basavaraju said that Odenapur was elected as the district president in a government employee election, reportedly with substantial financial support from BJP supporters. He suggested that the Mallikarjun backed him, which may have led to the defeat of the party's preferred candidate.In his

Knees injured, limping: Mallikarjun Kharge alleges BJP MPs pushed him during protest

New Delhi. Congress Chief Mallikarjun Kharge on Thursday alleged that BJP MPs pushed him to the ground, causing a knee injury during the simultaneous protests by Congress and BJP outside Parliament over Union Home Minister Amit Shah's remarks on Dr Ambedkar. Kharge raised these allegations in his letter to the Lok Sabha Speaker and sought an enquiry into the incident.

The Congress President called it not just a personal attack on him but also an attack on the position of the Leader of the Opposition in Rajya Sabha and the Congress President, both of which

Thereafter, I lost my balance and was forced to sit down on the ground in front of Makar Dwar. This inflicted injury on my knees which have already undergone surgery," Kharge said in his letter."Subsequently, Congress MPs brought a chair and I was made to sit on it. With great difficulty and with the support of my colleagues, I limped to the House at 11 am," his letter to the Speaker further reads.

He urged the speaker to "order an enquiry into this incident which is an assault not just on me personally but on the Leader of the Opposition, Rajya Sabha and the Congress thick sticks.

"BJP MPs were armed with placards with thick sticks and were made to push and shove to stop the peaceful protest of INDIA alliance MPs so that their animosity towards Babasaheb, Parliament, Constitution and democracy is not exposed," he alleged. The Parliament premises saw a high-voltage political drama today as the BJP and Congress held simultaneous protests, where MPs from both camps came face to face.

A BJP MP, Pratap Chandra Sarangi, sustained injuries during the protest, with the saffron party claiming that it occurred when Rahul Gandhi pushed another MP into him. Rahul Gandhi denied the allegations, claiming instead that the BJP had pushed Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge and blocked his own entry at the Parliament gate. The BJP is planning to file an FIR against Rahul Gandhi over the incident.

Basavaraju sought Shivakumar's intervention to address these issues, ensuring fair practices and political neutrality. He said that Mallikarjun's association was affecting the local legislators, leaders, and activists associated with the Congress, leading to discontent. The Channagiri MLA stated that with the upcoming panchayat elections, he feared further setbacks for Congress in the region if no action was taken.

While the BJP accused Congress of misleading the public over Amit Shah's remarks on BR Ambedkar, Congress demanded the Union Home Minister's resignation.

New Delhi. The Parliament premises on Thursday turned into a stage for high-voltage political drama as the BJP and Congress held simultaneous protests, targeting each other over Union Home Minister Amit Shah's remarks on BR Ambedkar in Parliament. The MPs from both camps came face to face, all holding placards bearing images of Ambedkar and accusing the other side of disrespecting him. A BJP MP sustained injuries during the protest, with the party claiming that it occurred when Rahul Gandhi pushed another MP into him. Rahul Gandhi denied the allegations, claiming instead that the BJP had pushed Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge and blocked his own entry at the Parliament gate.

Leaders of the INDIA bloc, including Priyanka Gandhi and Mallikarjun

Kharge, scaled the walls of Makar Dwar, the main gate of Parliament, holding placards demanding an apology and the resignation of Amit Shah. They were dressed in blue clothes and wore blue caps, a colour associated with the Dalit movements.Meanwhile, the BJP accused Congress of misleading the public. They raised slogans such as, "Insult to Babasaheb Ambedkar will not be tolerated," while holding banners that read, "Ambedkar showed us the path, Congress misled".

The BJP claimed that party MP Pratap Chandra Sarangi was injured after Congress leader Rahul Gandhi pushed another MP onto him. He was shifted to the hospital following the injury to his face."Rahul Gandhi pushed an MP who fell on me, after which I fell down...I was standing near the stairs when Rahul Gandhi came and pushed an MP who then fell on me," Sarangi claimed.Rahul Gandhi rejected the claim, saying that the BJP MPs blocked him at the Parliament gate and also pushed the Congress leader."This might be on your camera. I was trying to go inside through the Parliament entrance, BJP MPs were trying to stop me, push me and threaten me. So this happened...Yes, this has happened (Mallikarjun Kharge being pushed)," he said.A huge

The party accused Amit Shah of insulting the architect of the Indian Constitution by stating, "It has become a fashion to say Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar. If they had taken God's name so many times, they would have secured a place in heaven across all seven lives". The BJP, meanwhile, hit back, accusing Congress of amending the Constitution and disrespecting Ambedkar over the years for political gains. They also claimed that the video of Amit Shah's speech shared by Congress was manipulated and warned Congress of legal action.

Crossing the line on the judicial front

The Politics of 'Bangladeshi Infiltrators'...

AN impeachment motion has been moved against Justice Shekhar Kumar Yadav of the Allahabad High Court over his remarks at a recent event of the Vishva Hindu Parishad (VHP). There is no chance that the move will succeed because the ruling dispensation is against it. Indeed, Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath has strongly supported Justice Yadav. There are reports that Justice Yadav has been asked by the Supreme Court Collegium to meet it. The latter has no legal authority to do so. Hence, he will be within the law to skip the meeting. However, if he does meet the Collegium, it can draw his attention to the Restatement of Values of Judicial Life, adopted by the Supreme Court in May 1997. It can advise him to observe them, but if he chooses to ignore them, it can really do nothing except recommend his transfer from the Allahabad HC. It is possible, though, that the government may not act on the recommendation. Thus, as matters stand, Justice Yadav virtually enjoys immunity for his remarks at the VHP function. Yes, there is one step the HC Chief Justice can take. He can decide not to allot judicial work to the judge on the ground that the comments have made him unfit to adjudicate cases. But that will require a very courageous Chief Justice in our contentious times.

Paragraphs 8 and 9 of Restatement of Values of Judicial Life read: "A Judge shall not enter into public debate or express his views in public on political matters or on matters that are pending or are likely to arise for judicial determination. A Judge is expected to let his judgments speak for themselves. He shall not give interview to the media."In the past, judges did not seek to attract attention either to themselves or their personal views on national affairs. They seldom gave lectures or participated in public functions. This was based on the sound principle that the public was based on the sound principle that the public should have confidence that their decisions were based on the facts and the law and no other consideration. The cardinal and eternal essence of the dispensation of justice is that it must not only be done but also be manifestly done. Today, too, many judges of superior courts follow this principle and avoid the temptation of airing their views in public. However, if the feeling gains currency in the judiciary that there is nothing objectionable for judges to comment on issues such as the Uniform Civil Code (UCC) — a matter which may come up for adjudication — the present restraint exercised by most of the judges may get eroded to the detriment of the administration of justice in India. That will damage the national good.Justice Yadav not only spoke on the UCC but also did so in terms of rank communalism. All through his address, he spoke as a Hindu and addressed Muslims as a separate community. This violates the basic tenet of a judge: she/he will not distinguish between citizens on the grounds of religion either as individuals or as a group. It is particularly sad that Justice Yadav gave the go-by to the proud traditions of the Allahabad High Court, whose judges, even during the days of colonialism, strove to pursue the path of rectitude and reticence as well as fierce independence.

Justice Yadav may be suited for public life. He would have full freedom there to express his opinions, and if he is elected to a legislature, he can strive to ensure that these are converted into law. There is little doubt that political forces in the country that are supporting him may welcome him into their fold. They may find him an asset, for his VHP speech shows that he is a fluent public speaker who will be able to convey their beliefs succinctly to the public.I hope readers will forgive me for striking a personal note. My family members had a centurylong association with the Allahabad HC as lawyers judges. I moved away to the field of and diplomacy, but have vivid recollections of the inciples followed by my father, who retired as Chief Justice of this court. He told me that a judge should not only speak through his judgments but also confine those judgments to the law and facts of the case. He should not make obiter dicta, let alone use judgments to lecture society or point to national infirmities. That was the duty of other organs of the state.

THE term 'Bangladeshis' in India has infiltrated our lexicon as "illegal" human beings. They have also become the most acceptable alibis for the political class to extract political mileage and distract unfavourable attention.he recent case in point is Delhi's Lieutenant-Governor VK Saxena, who announced a two-month special drive to identify and act against illegal Bangladeshi immigrants residing in the national capital. The Delhi police has started raids in slums across Kalindi Kunj, Shaheen Bagh and Jamia Nagar, where Rohingya refugees were provided land to set up camps.

Many in India like to believe that Rohingya are Bangladeshis despite sufficient knowledge that the ethnicity is among the most persecuted groups of Myanmar.It may not be a coincidence that this development came hours after the BJP demanded a CBI investigation into the alleged illegal settlement of Rohingya in Jammu and Kashmir. Chief Minister of the state Omar Abdullah has said the refugees should be deported, if at all, but they could not be made to starve and he would not let them die in the cold.Yet, I will not be surprised if this campaign to identify Bangladeshi "infiltrators' picks steam across other states. Let us not forget that we are upon another season of elections and, this time, for the national capital.Many would have forgotten that in mid-1992, Delhi had launched Operation Pushback to deport Bangladeshis. That was under the Congress government, which was responding to a belligerent Sangh Parivar dramatically heightening its pitch around unauthorised immigration. Assam had already scripted the threat of a silent demographic invasion by these impoverished, desperate, pitiable neighbours who were being pushed into India to seize Hindu territory. The template of Bangladeshi-phobia was a well-established eastern propaganda that the Sangh appropriated in its entirety. It was, however, willing to exclude the Hindu Bangladeshis as refugees who were escaping persecution. The same lens wouldn't apply to Rohingya at a later stage. Around the same time, the Sangh launched the slogan, 'Infiltrators Quit India', and forced the Congress to act against whom it considered infiltrators, setting the stage for an event that would change the political landscape of the country forever. By December, the crescendo had reached Ayodhya, resulting in the demolition of the Babri Masjid.The presence of illegal migrants from the neighbouring countries is not an unfamiliar piece of data. It is also well known that during the Congress regime, politicians have reportedly used these settlers as "vote banks". But there is no evidence yet or corroboration of the claim that millions of infiltrators have arrived to take over parts of this country.Instigated by the Sangh's growing voice against the infiltrators, the then Prime Minister Narasimha Rao rolled out an action plan against the Bangladeshis to counter the jingoism. It only added fuel to the propaganda. In September 1992, a group of 132 persons was identified as infiltrators and removed from the Seemapuri area of east Delhi. It is well known that all efforts by the government to arrest infiltration through the porous borders have proven ineffective. However, the build-up of such a campaign has been highly beneficial politically. The 1992 campaign, finally, provided the Sangh political legitimacy and made xenophobia and anti-Muslim rhetoric acceptable in public life.The current campaign launched by the bureaucratic arm of the BJP in Delhi has raises the suspicion of the beginning of a nationwide 'identification' drive that could serve as a precursor of another round of the National Register of Citizens (NRC). Though Assam provides the case study that the NRC is a wasteful exercise in detection, it has proven to be a worthwhile weapon to intimidate and harass Muslims. Manipulated by political parties, the acute fear of being rendered into a non-citizen has repeatedly triggered ethnonational projects across decades.In the politics of the Hindu right, the framing of migrants threatening the security of Hindu-India has become synonymous with Muslims in general.

The ongoing exercise is already on the lines of the NRC verification, something that Uttar Pradesh had initiated in 2019. The chorus then had gained momentum, with other states chiming in and Karnataka even constructing a detention centre. Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma, known for his anti-Muslim vocabulary, has floated the idea of a nationwide NRC in his recent election campaign in Jharkhand.Given India's poor neighbourhood policy that stood exposed after the fall of Dhaka this year, such rhetoric is bound to further deteriorate relations between the two countries, which are always on the edge with the NRC.

- It will be interesting to see how this is going to play out with another Islamophobic campaign gaining ground: the claim of temples under mosques. The Places of Worship (Special Provisions) Act, 1991 mandates that the nature of all places of worship, except the one in Ayodhya that was then under litigation, shall be maintained as it was on August 15, 1947. While one hoped the Ayodhya judgement would have closed this matter, more such suits have been filed in Varanasi and, more recently in Sambhal, where trial courts hastily ordered surveys of the mosques, resulting in a clash that killed four people.
- This could well be a convergence of two distinctive sets of xenophobic projects that will set off a chain of low-intensity anti-Muslim campaigns working simultaneously, while stepping up the ante wherever political machinations are due.
- While the detection and detention mechanism fits the concept of "the process is the punishment", the mosque surveys claiming buried temples aim to set right "historical wrongs", thus perpetrating the narrative of revenge against invaders who have looted the glorious past.

THE life of farmer leader Jagjit Singh Dallewal, who is on a fast-unto-death, is precious — as rightly observed by the Supreme Court. So too are the lives of all protesters who are staying put at Shambhu and Khanauri borders in the bitter cold. And Dallewal himself has said that the lives of farmers pushed to the brink by flawed government policies are more valuable than his own. If every kisan's life really matters, why have things come to such a pass? And why has the time-tested path of dialogue been abandoned?

Unfortunately, it was only after the apex court's

by factors such as the debt burden, rising costs of farming and inadequate support for crop diversification.

The SC has urged farmers to adopt the Gandhian way of staging protests. The Mahatma considered fasting as a potent weapon in the Satyagraha armoury, but he made it clear that a Satyagrahi should do it only as the last resort --- "when all other avenues of redress have been explored and have failed". Leaders of farm unions still have the option of pressing the Centre to return to the negotiating table. The marathon talks between Union ministers and farmers? representatives in February might not have produced a breakthrough, but that is no reason to snap lines of communication. A mutual climbdown is a must to save farmers' lives as well as livelihood.

intervention that senior representatives of the Punjab and Central governments reached out to Dallewal. But it is unlikely that his extreme stand will force the Centre to accept farmers' key demands, including a legal guarantee of MSP for various crops. After all, over 700 of them had died during a year-long agitation before the Modi government finally repealed the three farm laws. Ironically, Dallewal's hunger strike and the efforts to dissuade him are eclipsing the big picture — the widespread agrarian distress fuelled

What porn has to do with the post-Nirbhaya world

Pornography can foster unhealthy attitudes that can escalate into sexual frustration and violence. Addressing this requires urgent government action.

ON December 16, 2012, the brutal gang-rape of a young physiotherapy student on a moving bus in Delhi became the turning point for India. The girl died, and the tragedy sparked protests and demands for justice, pushing for better legal protection for women.Named 'Nirbhaya', her death shook the country's conscience. The tragedy forced policymakers to confront the inadequacies in laws addressing sexual violence. Long-debated reforms were, finally, prioritised as the case became the catalyst for overhauling legal frameworks to ensure better protection, justice and accountability for crimes against women.Following the Nirbhaya tragedy, the Indian government passed the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act of 2013, expanding the definition of sexual violence to include stalking, voyeurism and acid attacks. It also increased the penalty for rape, including life imprisonment and death penalty for repeat offenders. Fast-track courts were introduced and an amendment in the 2015 Juvenile Justice Act allowed minors aged 16-18 committing heinous crimes to be tried as adults. A Nirbhaya Fund was created for the implementation of initiatives aimed at enhancing the safety and security of women, such as installing CCTVs at public places.

The 2017 Unnao rape case and the 2018 Kathua rape and murder case demonstrated the potential of fast-track courts to lead to convictions. But the 2020 Hathras gangrape revealed that challenges still persisted in achieving impartial justice. Today, 12 years after the Nirbhaya case, despite various legal reforms, women face persistent sexual violence. In August this year, a doctor was raped and killed at a hospital in Kolkata, while a seven-monthold girl was brutally raped earlier this month, again in Kolkata. This tragic reality signals a profound societal failure.It is not easy to pinpoint any particular reason behind the continued sexual crimes against women and even babies. A complex interplay of social, cultural, economic and systemic factors is behind it — from the deep-rooted patriarchy perpetuating harmful gender norms to devaluing women as subordinates to men; from the lack of open conversations about healthy sexual relationships to the absence of comprehensive sex education; from delayed investigations, low conviction rates and insensitive handling of cases to underreporting of such cases due to social stigma; from substance abuse to rapid urbanisation, migration and weakening of community ties; from social isolation and anonymity in urban settings to unemployment and economic inequalities. All these factors can create frustration and aggression, sometimes leading to acts of sexual violence. Another contributing factor is the rapid digitisation and low-cost or free accessibility of pornographic material. A study published in the 'Indian Journal of Public Health' points out that India, with 12 per cent of the websites devoted to pornography, ranks third in porn consumption globally. Excessive consumption of porn has become a pressing public health concern, with research pointing to its correlation with sexual crimes.

A study by the UK Government's Equality Office in 2020 found that though harmful attitudes toward women are influenced by multiple factors, a key reason was pornography. Many researchers consider it to be a significant contributor to harmful sexual beliefs and behaviours in highrisk individuals.Understanding this relationship requires the examination of pornography consumption. Viewing too much pornographic content leads to desensitisation. It makes the content mundane and commonplace, leading to increased exposure time and a quest for more hard-core content. It also leads to a detachment from reality and lack of differentiation between the real and the virtual.

Whether pornographic content affects sexual aggression has been debated for decades. Since complex multiple factors contribute to deviant behaviour, blaming pornography alone oversimplifies the issue and diverts attention from the systemic causes. However, one certainly cannot ignore pornography as a key factor.

Research on rape culture has focused on understanding the acquisition of attitudes, behaviours and norms The myths associated with rape promote the idea that rape associated with violence against women. While many of these factors are more influential than pornography, it is often pornography's interaction with these factors and their exacerbation that heightens its impact. Certain types of pornography, particularly those depicting violence or non-consensual acts, may normalise aggression and perpetuate misogynistic views.

Frequent consumption of such material can desensitise viewers to violence and blur the understanding of consent in a relationship. For individuals with a predisposition towards violent or harmful behaviour, pornography can act as a trigger, reinforcing these tendencies. Exposure to pornography that objectifies women can increase the acceptance of rape myths and play a significant role in shaping attitudes linked to the perpetuation of 'rape culture'.

is usually avoidable if certain precautions are taken. The onus of "don't get raped" is thrust upon women (as opposed to "don't rape" upon men). And, this self-protective ideal lends itself comfortably to blaming the victim and absolving the perpetrator.

Urgent government action is needed to address this menace. The steps required to be taken include the regulation of free pornographic websites and issuance of trigger warnings as also seeking proof of age for access to such sites and holding awareness campaigns and supervised discussions on consent and respectful relationships. Introducing media and digital literacy in educational institutions, adult education classes, institutions of open and lifelong learning and community and vocational education can further equip students to evaluate harmful content critically. As we honour Nirbhaya's memory, her legacy demands more than symbolic gestures. Strong laws must be enforced and efforts to inculcate gender sensitivity amongst all stakeholders must continue. Justice-focused narratives should dominate the media, countering misinformation and fostering accountability. The government should commission research studies to find reasons behind the persistence of rape cases. The transformation journey requires a collective effort towards creating a society where every citizen feels safe and no girl has to pay with her life and be named 'Nirbhaya' again.

প্রায় ২৪ ঘন্টা পর, বেঙ্গল সরকার পিছু হটেছে এবং ঝাড়খণ্ড থেকে বেঙ্গলে যাওয়া সমস্ত পণ্যবাহী যানবাহনের প্রবেশ শুরু হয়েছে। গত সন্ধ্যা ৭টার পর বেঙ্গল সরকারের আদেশে ঝাড়খণ্ড–বেঙ্গল মথন সীমান্তে পণ্যবাহী যানবাহনের প্রবেশ নিষিদ্ধ করা হয়েছিল।

এর ফলে রাত থেকে দুপুর পর্যন্ত প্রায় ২০ কিমি দীর্ঘ যানজট সৃষ্টি হয়। চালকদের সমস্যার কথা বিবেচনা করে, MASS বেঙ্গল সরকারকে চাপ দেয় ঝাড়খণ্ড সীমান্ত থেকে বেঙ্গলে প্রবেশ করা সমন্ত যানবাহন বন্ধ করার জন্য। এর ফলে, বেঙ্গল সরকার পিছু হটতে বাধ্য হয় এবং অবশেষে ভারী যানবাহনের প্রবেশ আবার স্বাভাবিক হয়।

বেঙ্গল সরকারের এই অনুমতির পর, ট্রাক চালকরা স্বস্তির নিঃশ্বাস ফেলেন। প্রাক্তন নিরসা বিধায়ক অরূপ চ্যাটার্জি ঝাড়খণ্ডের মুখ্যমন্ত্রী হেমন্ড সোরেনের এই উদ্যোগের প্রশংসা করেন। তিনি বলেন, মুখ্যমন্ত্রী হেমন্ত সোরেন এই বিষয়ে ক্রমাগত গুরুত্ব দিয়েছেন। বেঙ্গল সরকারের সাথে ইতিবাচক আলোচনা করার পর বেঙ্গল সরকার নিষেধাজ্ঞা তুলে নেয়। এর পর, সারিতে দাঁড়িয়ে থাকা সমস্ত পণ্যবাহী যানবাহন ধীরে ধীরে বেঙ্গলে প্রবেশ করতে শুরু করেছে। NH-এ দীর্ঘ যানজট এখন সীমিত হচ্ছে এবং যানজটও ভাঙতে শুরু করেছে।

लखनऊ। मुख्यमंत्री योगी आदित्यनाथ की अंगुवाई में पीएम सर्य घर योजना को उत्तर प्रदेश में नए आयाम मिल रहे हैं। केंद्र की योजनाओं को प्रदेश के विकास से जोडते हुए योगी सरकार ने युपी को सौर ऊँर्जा उत्पादन के क्षेत्र में शीर्ष राज्यों में ला खडा किया है। बिजली बचत, आय वृद्धि और हरित ऊर्जा के लक्ष्य को पूरा करने वाली इस योजना से प्रदेश के लाखों घर लाभान्वित हो रहे हैं। प्रदेश सरकार की सक्रियता का ही परिणाम है कि उत्तर प्रदेश, सोलर रूफटॉप इंस्टालेशन के मामले में गुजरात और महाराष्ट्र के बाद देशभर में तीसरे स्थान पर है। अब तक प्रदेश में 53 हजार से अधिक सोलर रूफ टॉप पैनल

लगाने का है। योजना को जनता तक पहुंचाने में मिली सफलता का अंदाजा इस बात से लगाया जा सकता है कि अब तक 18 लाख से अधिक पंजीकरण हो चके हैं, जिनमें से 32 हजार से घरों में पैनल का अधिक इंस्टालेशन भी पुरा कर लिया गया

लक्ष्य अगले तीन वर्षों में 25 सरकार सोलर रूफटॉप लगाने के लिए आकर्षक सब्सिडी प्रदान कर

> हजार रुपए की सहायता देती है, यानी कुल 45 हजार रुपए की सब्सिडीं। इसी तरह, 2 किलोवॉट के पैनल के लिए केंद्र सरकार द्वारा 60 हजार और योगी सरकार द्वारा 30 हजार, कुल 90 हजार रुपए की सहायता लाभार्थियों को दी जा रही है। वहीं, 3 किलोवॉट या उससे ऊपर के पैनल के लिए केंद्र की ओर से 78 हजार रुपए और राज्य सरकार की ओर से 30 हजार रुपए की सब्सिडी मिलाकर 1 लाख 8 हजार रुपए तक

लगाए जा चुके हैं। सरकार का है। पीएम सूर्य घर योजना के तहत है जो बिजली बिल के बोझ से राहत पाना चाहते हैं। सोलर पैनल लगवाने से न केवल बिजली के बिलों में भारी रही है। 1 किलोवॉट क्षमता के कमी आ रही है, बल्कि लोग पैनल के लिए केंद्र सरकार 30 अतिरिक्त ऊर्जा का उपयोग करके हजार रुपए और प्रदेश सरकार 15 आय में वृद्धि भी कर रहे हैं। खास बात यह है कि सौर ऊर्जा के उपयोग से पर्यावरण को भी स्वच्छ और हरित बनाया जा रहा है। योजना के सफल क्रियान्वयन के लिए शहरी स्थानीय निकायों और पंचायतों को सक्रिय भूमिका निभाने के लिए प्रोत्साहित किया जा रहा है। इससे ग्रामीण और शहरी क्षेत्रों में सौर ऊर्जा के उपयोग को बढ़ावा मिल रहा है। मुख्यमंत्री योगी आंदित्यनाथ ने युपी में 25 लाख सोलर रूफटॉप पैनल लगाने का लक्ष्य तय किया है। इसके लिए प्रदेश के सातों की सहायता दी जा रही है। इस योजना डिस्कॉम और हर जिले के लिए स्पष्ट का सीधा फायदा उन घरों को मिल रहा लक्ष्य निर्धारित किया गया है।

लगातार तीसरे दिन गिरावट के साथ बंद हुआ शेयर बाजार, सेंसेक्स और निफ्टी लुढ़के

नई दिल्ली। घरेलू शेयर बाजार लगातार तीसरे दिन गिरावट के साथ बंद हुआ। आज के कारोबार की शुरुआत भी कमजोरी के साथ हुई थी। शुरुआती कारोबार में खरीदारी के सपोर्ट से शेयर बाजार कुछ देर के लिए हरे निशान में भी पहुंचा, लेकिन पहले आधे घंटे के कारोबार के बाद ही बिकवाली का दबाव बढ जाने के कारण शेयर बाजार ने दोबारा लाल निशान में गोता लगा दिया। इसके बाद पूरे दिन सेंसेक्स और निफ्टी दोनों

सूचकांक लाल निशान में ही कारोबार और ऑयल एंड गैस इंडेक्स भी कमजोरी करते रहे। परे दिन के कारोबार के बाद सेंसेक्स 0.62 प्रतिशत और निफ्टी 0.56 प्रतिशत की गिरावट के साथ बंद हुए। आज पूरे दिन के कारोबार के बाद आईटी और फार्मास्यूटिकल सेक्टर को छोड़कर सभी सेक्टोरल इंडेक्स गिरावट के साथ लाल निशान में बंद हए। मेटल, एनर्जी और ऑटोमोबाइल सेक्टर में आज सबसे अधिक बिकवाली होती रही। इसके अलावा पीएसई, रियल्टी, एफएमसीजी, कैपिटल गुड्स, कंज्यूमर ड्यूरेबल, टेक

के साथ बंद हए। ब्रॉडर मार्केट में भी आज लगातार बिकवाली का दबाव बना रहा, जिसके कारण बीएसई का मिडकैप इंडेक्स 0.61 प्रतिशत की कमजोरी के साथ बंद हुआ। इसी तरह स्मॉलकैप इंडेक्स ने 0.76 प्रतिशत की गिरावट के साथ आज के कारोबार का अंत किया। आज शेयर बाजार में आई कमजोरी के कारण स्टॉक मार्केट के निवेशकों की संपत्ति में 2 लाख करोड़ रुपये से अधिक की कमी हो गई। बीएसई में लिस्टेड

कंपनियों का मार्केट कैपिटलाइजेशन आज के कारोबार के बाद घट कर 452.75 लाख करोड रुपये (अस्थाई) हो गया। पिछले कारोबारी दिन यानी मंगलवार को इनका मार्केट कैपिटलाइजेशन 455.13 लाख करोड़ रुपये था। इस तरह निवेशकों को आज के कारोबार से करीब 2.38 लाख करोड रुपये का नुकसान हो गया। आज दिन भर के कारोबार में बीएसई में 4,099 शेयरों में एक्टिव ट्रेडिंग हुई। इनमें 1,449 शेयर बढ़त के साथ बंद हुए, जबकि 2,554

शेयरों में गिरावट का रुख रहा और 96 सेंसेक्स आज 18.19 अंक की मामूली शेयर बिना किसी उतार चढाव के बंद हुए। एनएसई में आज 2,520 शेयरों में एक्टिव ट्रेडिंग हुई। इनमें से 719 शेयर मुनाफा कमा कर हरे निशान में और 1801 शेयर नुकसान उठा कर लाल निशान में बंद हुए। इसी तरह सेंसेक्स में शामिल 30 शेयरों में से 8 शेयर बढत के साथ और 22 शेयर गिरावट के साथ बंद हुए। निफ्टी में शामिल 50 शेयरों में से 17 शेयर हरे निशान में और 33 शेयर लाल निशान में बंद हुए। बीएसई का

गिरावट के साथ 80,666.26 अंक के स्तर पर खुला। बाजार खुलने के बाद खरीदारी के सपोर्ट से ये सूचकांक 183.57 अंक की मजबती के साथ 80,868.02 अंक के स्तर तक पहुंचा। सेंसेक्स की ये मजबती अधिक देर तक टिक नहीं सकी। पहले आधे घंटे के कारोबार के बाद ही बाजार में बिकवाली का दबाव बन गया। इस बिकवाली के कारण सेंसेक्स ने दोबारा लाल निशान में गोता लगा दिया। हालांकि. बीच-बीच में खरीदारों ने लिवाली

करके बाजार को सहारा देने की कोशिश भी की। इसके बावजद बिकवाली का दबाव इतना अधिक था कि ये सूचकांक लगातार लाल निशान में ही कारोबार करता रहा। लगातार हो रही बिकवाली के दबाव में ये सूचकांक 634.38 अंक टूट कर 80,050.07 अंक तक गिर गया। हालांकि, आखिरी आधे घंटे के कारोबार में हुई मामुली लिवाली के सपोर्ट से ये सूचकांक निचले स्तर से करीब 130 अंक की रिकवरी करके 502.25 अंक की कमजोरी के साथ 80,182.20 अंक के स्तर पर बंद हुआ।

नमक, स्वाद के साथ-साथ सेहत के लिए भी उपयोगी है। मगर, हर चीज की एक तय सीमा होती है। इसी तरह नमक से ज्यादा प्यार भी आपकी सेहत के लिए हजारों खतरे पैदा कर सकता है। बेशक आपको नमक इतना पसंद है कि आप सब्जी में ऊपर से नमक डालने को मजबूर हो जाती हैं, लेकिन इस आदत के जरिए आप अनजाने हैं। कई बीमारियों को न्योता दे रही होती हैं।

खाना बनाते वक्त नमक सबसे पहले याद आता है । आप चाहे जितने भी अच्छे और खुशबुदार मसाले डाल लें, लेकिन अगर खाने में नमक नहीं है, तो सारा खाना बेस्वाद हो जाता है । बेशक आप सब्जी में ऊपर से नमक डालने को मजबूर हो जाती हैं, लेकिन इस आदत के जरिए आप अनजाने ही कई बीमारियों को न्योता दे रही होती हैं।

नमक और आपकी सेहत

नई दिल्ली के सफदरजंग हॉस्पिटल में प्रोफेसर और विभागाध्यक्ष डॉ.जुगल किशोर कहते हैं, 'नमक हमारे शरीर की इलेक्ट्रोलाइट संबंधी जरूरतों को पूरा करता है यानी इससे हमें सोडियम, पोटैशियम और कैल्शियम मिलता है । इसके अलावा इससे आयोडीन भी मिलता है । लेकिन, खाने में नमक ज्यादा हो जाए तो भी दिक्कत है और कम हो तो भी दिक्कत है । रोजाना की खुराक में नमक यानी सोडियम क्लोराइड की माँत्रा पांच ग्राम से कम होनी चाहिए । अध्ययनों में यह बात सामने आई है कि नमक ज्यादा खाने की आदत के साथ रक्तचाप संबंधी समस्या भी बढने लगती है । जितनी भी दिल से जुड़ी बीमारियां हैं, वे रक्तचाप के कारण ही होती हैं। इसके अलावा नमक के ज्यादा सेवन से किडनी पर भी दबाव पड़ता है । उच्च रक्तचाप का मस्तिष्क पर भी असर पड़ता है । यानी शरीर के जो मुख्य अंग हैं, वे ज्यादा नमक के सेवन से प्रभावित होनेँ लगते हैं। यही वजह है कि नमक का सेवन संतुलित मात्रा में करने की सलाह दी जाती है । एक और बात को

ध्यान में रखने की जरूरत है, रोटी, चावल, दलिया आदि खाद्य पदार्थों में प्राकृतिक तौर पर सोडियम मौजुद होता है। ऐसे में इनमें नमक न भी डाला जाए तो भी सोडियम की पूर्तिं हो जाती है । उच्च रक्तचाप के मरीज को भी चार से पांच ग्राम नमक ही दिन भर में खाना चाहिए । सेहतमंद रहने के लिए किसी भी डिश में ऊपर से नमक डालकर खाने की आदत को भी बदलना जरूरी है ।

मात्रा तय करें

खाना बनाते वक्त आप उसमें कितना नमक डाल रही हैं, उसकी मात्रा को देखना एक अच्छा आइडिया है। कितने लोगों के लिए सब्जी पकाई जा रही है, उसे किस तरह से पकाया जा रहा है, नमक डालते वक्त इन सब बातों को जरूर ध्यान में रखें। अगर आपके परिवार के सदस्यों को ज्यादा नमक खाने की आदत है तो धीरे–धीरे खाने में नमक की मात्रा कम करती जाएं । संभव है कि शूरुआत में उन्हें परेशानी हो, पर जल्द ही उन्हें कम नमक वाला खाना भी पसंद आने लगेगा। मसाले, टमाटर और धनिया व पुदीना आदि भी खाने में नमक की कम मात्रा को संतुलित करने में आपकी मदद करेंगे । इंडियन स्पाइनल इंजरीज सेंटर में सीनियर डाइटीशियन डॉ.हिमांशी शर्मा के मुताबिक, 'इसमें कोई दोराय नहीं है कि आयोडीन युक्त नमक हमारी सेहत के लिए जरूरी है। गर्भवती महिलाओं के साथ-साथ होने वाले शिशु की सेहत पर भी इसका सकारात्मक प्रभाव पड़ताँ है । इससे दिमाग चुस्त-दुरुस्त रहता है और याददाश्त मजबूत बनी रहती है। लेकिन कुछ लोग रोजाना के

के कभी भी नमक का सेवन पूरी तरह से बंद नहीं करना चाहिएँ । ऐसा करने से भी आपको सेहत से जुड़ी परेशानियां हो सकती हैं ।'

विकल्प हैं बेहतर अगर आपको ज्यादा नमक खाने की आदत है, तो इससे निजात पाने के लिए नमक के अन्य विकल्पों पर अपना ध्यान केंद्रित करें । इसके लिए आप नीबू और सिरका

की मदद ले सकती हैं । स्वाद के लिहाज से नमक की कमी को यह काफी हद तक पूरा करते हैं । अदरक, लहसुन और कुछ सूखे मसाले भी इसमें मददगार साबित हो सकते हैं । बेशक ये नमक का विकल्प नहीं बन सकते हैं, लेकिन नमक की ज्यादा खाने की जो लत है, उसे कम करने में ये चीजें काफी मददगार साबित हो सकती हैं । बदलें खाना पकाने का तरीका कुछ सब्जियां और व्यंजन ऐसे होते हैं, जो लोगों को कम ही पसंद आते हैं । कई बार उनका स्वाद बढ़ाने के लिए हम उसमें नमक ज्यादा मात्रा में डालने लगते हैं । सलाद में ज्यादा मात्रा में नमक डालना, खाने के साथ सब्जी की तरह ढेर सारा अचार खाना आदि पहली नजर में बेहद सहज लगता है, पर धीरे– धीरे खानपान से जुड़ी ये आदतें हमारे शरीर में प्रतिदिन पांच ग्राम से ज्यादा नमक पहुंचाने लगती हैं।

इसका असर सेहत पर देर–संबेर

बनाने की जगह उन्हें रोस्ट या ग्रिल करके पकाएं । इससे खाना स्वादिष्ट भी लगेगा और नमक पर भी नियंत्रण बना रहेगा ।

प्रोसेस्ड फूड से बनाएं दूरी रेडी-टू-ईट फूड और तरह-तरह

के प्रोसेंस्ड फूड को अपनी डाइट में कम-से-कॅम मात्रा में शामिल करें । इनमें नमक और चीनी दोनों की मात्रा बहुत ज्यादा होती है । इसकी जगह घर में बने ताजा खाने को तरजीह दें । सही मात्रा में नमक के सेवन का यह सबसे अच्छा तरीका है । आप अपनी डाइट में सेहतमंद खाद्य पदार्थों को जितनी ज्यादा मात्रा में शामिल करेंगी, नमक की मात्रा उसी अनुपात में संतुलित होती जाएगी ।

न करें यह गलती फल खा रहे हों या सलाद या फिर सामान्य तौर पर खाना । नमक कम लगने पर हम ऊपर से नमक डालने लगते हैं । यह सेहत के लिए ठीक नहीं है।एक तो नमक ज्यादा मात्रा में शरीर में पहुंचता है, वहीं सलाद और फल के पोषक तत्व भी कम होने लगते हैं । सीमित मात्रा में नमक का सेवन ही काफी नहीं है,उसे किस तरीके से खाया जाना चाहिए, यह तरीका जानना भी उतना ही जरूरी है।

काम को घर न लाएं

ऑफिस से बाहर निकलने से पहले उन कामों की सूची बना लें, जो पूरे नहीं हो पाए। लेकिन काम की लिस्ट बनाने के बाद खुद को पूरी तरह ऑफिस के काम से आजाद कर लें। यही सोचें कि आप शाम को घर पर परिवार के साथ क्या करने जा रही हैं । अगर आप मानसिक तौर पर ऑफिस में ही फंसी हुई हैं तो एक गहरी सांस लें और इस बात का अहँसास करें कि आप ऑफिस से बाहर आ गई हैं । इससे आपका मन शांत और स्थिर रहेगा ।

अगर आप काम के लिए चौबीसों घंटे उपलब्ध रहेंगी, तो स्वाड्टााविक रूप से आप पर काम का बोझ बढ़ जाएगा । अगर आप आदतन काम के लिए हंा कह देती हैं तो कुछ अतिरिक्त काम मिलने

I have zero regrets, want to play for CSK as long as possible: R Ashwin

New Delhi R Ashwin received a hero's welcome at his residence in Chennai on Thursday, 19 December, after returning home from Australia. The off-spinner, who recently announced his retirement from international cricket, appeared in high spirits as he was greeted by emotional parents and cheering fans.Initially, Ashwin declined to address the media at Chennai airport. One reporter asked why he chose not to complete the five-Test series in Australia before announcing his retirement. While Ashwin remained tight-lipped at the airport, he later spoke to a select group of reporters outside his residence. When asked if he regretted not captaining the senior national team during his illustrious career, Ashwin responded with characteristic humour and candour."I can't any more. It's done," he quipped when asked about the captaincy.

'No, I have zero regrets. I have seen so many people with regrets from afar, but I don't want to live my life like that," he added.

Ashwin made the surprise announcement on Wednesday, revealing his decision at the Gabba press room shortly after the third Test ended in a draw. His mid-series retirement sparked mixed reactions, with some speculating he was disappointed by limited overseas Test opportunities. However, Ashwin dismissed such rumours, emphasising his happiness and contentment with his career."I am laughing; you can see I am happy," he said, expressing excitement about playing for the Chennai Super Kings (CSK) in the 2025 Indian Premier League (IPL).

WILL TRY AND PLAY FOR CSK AS LONG ASICAN: ASHWIN

- When asked about his immediate plans, Ashwin's characteristic wit shone through.
- "I want to be idle-no immediate plans. Being idle is difficult for me," he joked.
- He added: "I am going to play for CSK, and don't be surprised if I try and aspire to play for as long as I can. I don't think Ashwin the cricketer is done. I think Ashwin the Indian cricketer has probably called it time. That's it."Ashwin grew emotional as he addressed the crowd gathered at his residence, reminiscing about a similar reception after India's 2011 World Cup victory.
- Thanks to all of you. I didn't expect so many of you to come. I thought I would quietly reach home, but you've all made my day.

Formula 1: Sergio Perez and Red Bull part ways months after contract extension

New Delhi. Mexican driver Sergio Perez has officially parted ways with Red Bull Racing following a mutual agreement, announced on Wednesday, December 18. The decision comes as a surprise to many, particularly after Perez signed a contract extension earlier this year in May, which was expected to keep him with the team until 2026. The sudden departure has sparked speculation, with many attributing the move to Red Bull's disappointment in Perez's recent performances. Despite his significant contributions in previous seasons, including aiding the team to claim Constructors' Championship titles in 2022 and 2023, his form this year fell under scrutiny. Perez finished eighth in the Drivers' Championship, a staggering 285 points behind teammate Max Verstappen, who claimed his fourth consecutive title. Additionally, Perez failed to secure a single endured a frightening injury in PSG's 4-2 victory over Monaco after Wilfried Singo's high boot struck his face. Despite the setback, PSG extended their Lique 1 lead, though their Champions League struggles remain concerning.

New Delhi Paris Saint-Germain goalkeeper Gianluigi Donnarumma suffered a concerning injury during PSG's Ligue 1 clash against AS Monaco on December 19, after being struck in the face by Wilfried Singo's cleats during a goal-scoring attempt. The incident occurred in the 17th minute when Singo, whose initial shot was blocked, attempted to jump over the sliding Donnarumma but inadvertently made contact with the Italian's face. The high boot left Donnarumma lying on the pitch in visible discomfort, prompting immediate medical attention. After a few tense moments, the PSG shot-stopper was able to stand and walk off the field but was replaced by Matvei Safonov for the remainder of the match. The challenge sparked debate as Singo was not shown a red card, which is typically the penalty for a high boot challenge. Despite this, PSG manager Luis Enrique refrained from criticising the referee's decision post-match."The refereeing decisions? I can't do anything, I couldn't see the action, but when you see an action like that it's always difficult," Luis Enrique said in a post-match interview."The players don't intend to hurt. It's difficult to referee this kind of match. I'm not talking about the refereeing work," he added.

PSG ultimately won the match 4-2 over Monaco. Ousmane Dembélé delivered an electrifying performance, netting a brace, while Gonçalo Ramos and Desire Douée each added a goal to seal the win. The victory extended PSG's lead at the top of the Ligue 1 table to 10 points, showcasing their domestic dominance under Luis Enrique.

However, despite their strong league performance, PSG continues to face challenges in the newly formatted Champions League. The Parisian side currently sits outside the qualification spots for the knockout stages with only two group-stage games left to play, raising concerns about their European campaign.Monaco, on the other hand, remains in third place in Ligue 1, level on points with second-place Marseille, which has a game in hand. The loss was a setback for Monaco, but they remain firmly in the race for a Champions League spot.

The injury to Donnarumma adds to PSG's growing list of concerns as they balance their Ligue 1 dominance with the pressure of advancing in Europe. The club will now await updates on Donnarumma's condition as they prepare for a crucial phase in their season

The 14-game final had copped criticism from legendary Magnus Carlsen Vladimir Kramnik for being poor in quality.Speaking to India Today in an exclusive interview, Gukesh responded to the criticism and accepted that he was not at his best during the finals. In the tournament, a blunder from Liren in the final game saw Gukesh capitalise and secure the win and become the youngest chess World Champion in history. However, the quality of the final did come under scrutiny. Former world champions Carlsen and Vladimir Kramnik were vocal in expressing their displeasure at the Gukesh vs Liren match.
