Bangladesh commission finds India's 'involvement in enforced disappearances'

DHAKA. An inquiry commission formed by Bangladesh's interim government has said that it has found India's 'involvement' in incidents of 'enforced disappearances' during deposed prime minister Sheikh Hasina's regime, the state-run news agency BSS reported on Saturday.

The Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha (BSS), quoting the Commission of Inquiry on Enforced Disappearance, said that the Indian involvement in Bangladesh's system of enforced disappearances is a matter of public record. The news report said that according to the five-member commission headed by retired Supreme Court judge Mainul Islam Chowdhury, there was a 'persistent suggestion in law enforcement circles' that some prisoners might still be languishing in Indian jails.

We recommend the Ministries of Foreign and Home to extend their best efforts to identify any Bangladeshi citizens who may still remain incarcerated in India. It is beyond the jurisdiction of the commission to follow this trail outside Bangladesh," the commission said. The commission said it found intelligence information about the practice of captive exchanges between India and Bangladesh and the possible subsequent fate of detainees. The commission cited two highly publicised cases that provide valuable insights into how such operations were carried out.

"One was the case of Shukhranjan Bali, who was abducted from the Bangladesh Supreme Court premises and resurfaced subsequently in an Indian jail, and the other was of Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) leader Salahuddin Ahmed," commission said. The commission said BNP leader Ahmed's case exemplifies certain practices of the Bangladesh-India rendition system. It said that while hiding at a house in Dhaka's Uttara area in 2015, he recounted being imprisoned in a barren cell, where a hole in the ground served as a toilet."The blanket provided to him bore the letters "TFI", indicative of "Task Force for Interrogation," it added.During that period, the commission said the only operational TFI centre that they knew of was managed by Rapid Action Battalion (RAB) Intelligence Wing working under the aegis of RAB Headquarters.

The commission said that since then, they visited this location and confirmed that RAB Intelligence Wing still controls access to it."However, the interior of the facility was thoroughly decimated some time ago, the news report said quoting the commission.Last week, the five-member commission submitted an interim report titled "Unfolding The Truth" to Chief Adviser Professor Muhammad Yunus.

The commission estimated that there would be more than 3,500 enforced disappearances.Besides the chairman, the commission comprises Justice Farid Ahmed Shibli, rights activist Nur Khan, private BRAC University teacher Nabila Idris and rights activist Sajjad Hossain.Hasina, 77, fled to India on August 5 after unprecedented anti-government protests.The student-led Monsoon Revolution under the banner of 'Students Against Discrimination' succeeded in toppling Hasina's 16-year regime, propelled by fervent demands for change and accountability. The chief adviser's press wing had claimed the commission also found the involvement of the deposed prime minister's now absconding defence adviser, retired major general Tarique Ahmed Siddique, a now sacked major general and two senior police officers and several other senior officials in the cases of enforced disappearance. The news report said that the police's elite anti-crime Rapid Action Battalion (RAB), which draws men from army, navy, air force and regular police and other law enforcement agencies had collaborated with each other to pick up, torture and keep victims in detention.

The commission simultaneously proposed the abolition of the RAB alongside scrapping or thoroughly amending the Anti-Terrorism Act, 2009.Commission member and rights activist Sajjad.

Moscow. Russia's Tatarstan Republic declared a state of emergency for government bodies and emergency response units to manage the aftermath of Ukrainian drone attacks. "The head of Tatarstan has signed an order imposing a special emergency mode for government agencies and the Ministry of Emergency Situations. This status is necessary to swiftly handle the consequences of the attacks in accordance with the law," the press service of Tatarstan President Rustam Minnikhanov said on Saturday. "The order applies exclusively to those involved in the response efforts and does not affect the general population." On Saturday, eight drone strikes were reported in Tatarstan's capital city of Kazan, six of which targeted residential buildings. Preliminary reports indicated there were no injuries,

Xinhua news agency reported. Tatarstan's governor, Rustam Minnikhanov, confirmed six drones struck residential buildings, one hit an industrial site, and another was shot down over a river.

The attacks, which Ukraine didn't acknowledge in keeping with its security policy, come after a Ukrainian attack on Friday on a town in Russia's Kursk border region using US-supplied missiles killed six people, including a child.

Moscow sent 113 drones into Ukraine overnight into Saturday, Ukrainian officials said. According to Ukraine's Air Force, 57 drones were shot down during the attacks. A further 56 drones were "lost," likely having been electronically jammed. Following the attack, operations at Izhevsk Airport near Kazan were temporarily restricted. The restrictions were lifted by 15:00 local time (1100 GMT) on Saturday, Russia's TASS news agency quoted Alexander Sinelnikov, general director of Izhevsk-based aviation company Izhavia, as saying.

France Jails 8 Accused Who Beheaded Teacher For Showing Prophet's Caricature

Paris.A French court sentenced eight people to prison terms ranging from one to 16 years for their roles in a hate campaign that culminated in the murder of a teacher who had shown caricatures of the Prophet Mohammad in class, local media reported.

Days after Samuel Paty, 47, showed his pupils the caricatures in October 2020, an 18-year-old Chechen assailant stabbed and beheaded him outside his school in Conflans-Sainte-Honorine, near Paris. The assailant was shot dead by police moments after.

Among those convicted on Friday was the father of a student whose false account of Paty's use of the caricatures triggered a wave of social media posts targeting the middle-school teacher. ## Systematic conspiracy: Mallikarjun Kharge slams Centre's election rule change

New Delhi. Congress Chief Mallikarjun Kharge on Sunday sharply criticised the central government for amending election rules to restrict access to poll documents, calling it a deliberate conspiracy to undermine the integrity of the Election Commission.

Kharge accused the Centre of eroding the Election Commission's independence, calling it an attack on the Constitution and democracy.

"Modi Govt's audacious amendment in the Conduct of Election Rules is another assault in its systematic conspiracy to destroy the institutional integrity of the Election Commission of India," the Congress chief tweeted.On Friday, based on the recommendation of the Election Commission, the Union law ministry amended the Conduct of Election Rules, 1961, to prevent public inspection of certain electronic documents such as CCTV camera and webcasting footage as well as video recordings of candidates. The centre argued that the move aims to prevent their misuse.Slamming this move, Kharge said, "Earlier, they had removed the Chief Justice of India from the Selection panel which appoints Election Commissioners, and now they have resorted to stonewall electoral Congress was quick to counter the hanges. information, even after a High Court order". The Congress President also said that whenever the party approached the poll body, with concerns about specific poll Lok Sabha MP and Congress general secretary irregularities, including voter deletions and a lack of transparency in EVMs, the Commission responded dismissively and failed to acknowledge some serious complaints.

'This again proves that the ECI, even though it is a quasi-judicial body, is not behaving independently.

Modi Govt's calibrated erosion of ECI's integrity is a frontal attack on the Constitution and Democracy and we will take every step to safeguard them," Kharge said.Rule 93 mandates that all "papers" related to elections be open for public inspection. However, the amendment adds "as specified in these rules," narrowing access.

While documents like nomination forms, election agent appointments, results, and account statements are included under the Conduct of Election Rules, electronic records such as CCTV footage, webcasting, and candidate videos during the Model Code of Conduct period remain excluded.

Party general secretary Jairam Ramesh on Saturday said they would legally challenge the amendment.

KC Venugopal said the poll panel had chosen opacity and a pro-government attitude in its dealings thus far.Meanwhile, Election Commission officials said that records like CCTV footage, webcasting, and candidate videos during the Model Code of Conduct period are available to candidates, but restricting public access ensures voter secrecy and prevents misuse, though courts remain an avenue for access.

RJD leader Tejashwi Yadav meets protesters, backs demand for BPSC exams cancellation

PATNA. Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) leader Tejashwi Yadav has voiced support for the growing demand to cancel the recently conducted Bihar Public Service Commission (BPSC) exams. The exams, held under controversial circumstances, have sparked widespread protests among aspirants. Yadav, the former Deputy Chief Minister of Bihar, returned to the state capital late on Saturday night after a tour of the Seemanchal region, where he was mobilizing party support ahead of the assembly elections scheduled for next year.

Demonstrating his solidarity with the protesting candidates, Yadav visited the Gardani Bagh locality in Patna, where a 24-hour demonstration has been underway. The protesters are demanding the cancellation of the 70th Combined Competitive Exams (CCE), conducted on December 13, citing allegations of irregularities and mismanagement.

This latest development has further intensified the debate surrounding the fairness and transparency of competitive examinations conducted by the BPSC.Accompanied by close aide and Rajya Sabha MP Sanjay Yadav, the former Deputy CM chatted with the protesters for a while, before declaring "We are fully with the students on the issue. The Nitish Kumar government will have to order cancellation of the exams". "For every step that you take, Tejashwi is ready to move four paces forward", he told the protesters.

His visit came a day after Yadav had held a video chat with protesters, many of whom urged the young leader to take time off to support their stir.Notably, hundreds of aspirants at an exam centre in the city had boycotted the tests, alleging that question papers had been leaked. The allegation has met with a strong denial from the BPSC, which claimed the disruptions were caused by "anti-social elements" who had turned up as part of a "conspiracy" to get the exams cancelled. The Commission, however, has ordered reexamination for about 5,000 candidates who had been assigned the "Bapu Pariksha Parisar", which was at the centre of the controversy.

repercussions were truly profound."Bharat will inevitably progress, but it must do so without losing its Bharatiyata (Indianness). Only then can we truly emerge as a leading power in a multipolar world," he added.Jaishankar spoke for the Mumbai event where he was conferred the 27th SIES Sri Chandrasekarendra Saraswati National Eminence Award. The awards are given in four fields - public leadership, community leadership, human endeavor, science and technology, and social leadership – with primacy on spiritualism. The awards are named after the late 68th seer of Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam Sri Chandrasekarendra Saraswathi.

Amit Shah advises Northeast police to 'work for citizens' as insurgency is 'solved' reiterated.He said a multi-dimensional problem in the Northeast more or less solved, Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Saturday advised the police in the region to change its approach and work to ensure that people get their rights, including the protection of their lives and properties."For four decades, the focus of the police in the Northeast was on fighting insurgency. Now that insurgency is gone, it will work to protect the rights of citizens as guaranteed by the Constitution. We have to change the focus and training of police," Shah said addressing the 72nd plenary session of the North Eastern Council in the Tripura capital Agartala.Governors and Chief Ministers of the Northeast were among dignitaries who attended the session.

Referring to Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam (BSA), Shah said

these three new criminal laws would help citizens get justice within three years of lodging FIRs."We kept fighting terrorism and violence. The goal of the police was to get rid of violence. That task has been almost accomplished. As there is peace now in the Northeast, the police will have to change its culture and direction," he approach with a different strategy for each state helped curb the incidents of violence. He said there was a 31 per cent drop in violent incidents and 86 per cent drop in civilian killings in the region in the last 10 years.

The home minister said peace accords were signed with various insurgent groups and 10,574 rebels surrendered. He cited the agreements signed between Assam and Meghalaya, and Assam and Arunachal Pradesh for solving border disputes. He said these agreements also helped establish peace."We have initiated the Nasha Mukt Bharat Abhiyan. The Northeast has a special responsibility. The region is a transit route for narcotic-smuggling. I appeal to all Governors and Chief Ministers to help remove the blemish. We have to work very hard to make Bharat 'nasha-mukt'. The Northeast can contribute tremendously towards this end," Shah further stated.

Jaishankar said India was an exceptional nation as it was a civilisation state. "Such a country will only exercise influence when it fully leverages its cultural strengths in the global arena," he said.

"To that it is essential that we ourselves, the younger generation, are fully aware of the value and significance of our heritage. This can be articulated at various levels, but most importantly it should have an impact at the societal level," he added. The External Affairs Minister said India had shown to everyone in the last decade that it had the capabilities, confidence and the commitment to advance development across board fronts. Asserting that India was poised today at a critical juncture, he said, "It has shown that the age-old problems of poverty, discrimination and lack of opportunities can indeed be addressed. On the global stage, it has established itself as an independent power, but one committed to global good, especially the well-being of the global south."

AAP Announces Door-To-Door Registration Drive For 2 New Welfare Schemes

Under the Mahila Samman Yojana, every woman in Delhi will receive ? 2,100 monthly. This initiative aims to support women in managing household expenses and pursuing higher education.

New Delhi. Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) National Convenor and former Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal on Sunday announced the commencement of registrations for two new welfare schemes -- Mahila Samman Yojana and Sanjeevani Yojana -starting December 23. Speaking at a press conference alongside Delhi Chief Minister Atishi and former Deputy CM Manish Sisodia, Kejriwal outlined the benefits of the schemes and the door-to-door registration drive that AAP workers will undertake to ensure widespread participation.

Under the Mahila Samman Yojana, every woman in Delhi will receive ? 2,100 monthly. This initiative aims to support women in managing household expenses and pursuing higher education.

Highlighting the importance of the scheme, Kejriwal said, "We know how hard mothers and sisters work. Many manage their households while working outside. This ? 2,100 will help daughters complete their college education and enable housewives to handle rising household expenses or fulfil their personal aspirations, such as buying a saree or suit for themselves.""Ever since this scheme was announced, we have been inundated with calls and queries about registration. Today, I want to announce that registration will begin tomorrow. You do not need to stand in lines or waste time. Our AAP teams will visit your homes, register the women, and He also took an indirect dig at the opposition, provide a registration card. Keep this card safe," the AAP convenor added.Kejriwal also elaborated on the Sanjeevani Yojana, a free healthcare initiative for senior citizens aged 60 and above. Under this scheme, the Delhi government will bear all treatment costs in both government and private hospitals, irrespective of income level. "The middle class, which has tirelessly contributed to the country's progress by paying taxes, often finds itself neglected

during retirement. The biggest concern for many is how to afford healthcare in old age. I want to assure all senior citizens that the AAP government will take care of your medical expenses," Kejriwal stated.Registration for both schemes will start simultaneously, with AAP teams visiting households to ensure enrollment. Kejriwal emphasised that Delhi voters are eligible for the schemes and urged people to keep their voter IDs ready.

accusing them of cancelling voter IDs to deprive people of welfare benefits. "Check if your voter ID is active. If it has been cancelled, inform us immediately, and we will ensure it is reinstated," he said.Kejriwal, along with Atishi and Manish Sisodia, announced that they would personally visit certain areas to kickstart the registration process."This is a significant step towards empowering women and ensuring healthcare for the elderly. Tomorrow, the drive begins in full swing across Delhi," he concluded.

Why did Muslim-majority Syria & Afghanistan fall

ABOUT two weeks ago, Syrian rebel groups captured Damascus, ending more than half a century of rule by Hafez al-Assad and his son Bashar al-Assad, whose regime was long supported by Russia and Iran. Similarly, in mid-August 2021, Taliban insurgents toppled Ashraf Ghani's government, bringing a sudden end to two decades of US-backed administration in Afghanistan. The collapse of both regimes was strikingly swift — just 11 days in Syria and only 10 days in Afghanistan — catching many by surprise. These sudden downfalls marked the fall of two Muslim-majority countries in Asia within a span of just three years. What unfolded in these nations? What forces drove such rapid regime collapses?

Global powers played a decisive role in both cases, not only in sustaining the governments, but also inadvertently contributing to their collapses. In Syria, Assad's government heavily relied on military, political and diplomatic backing from Russia and Iran.Russia's war in Ukraine, coupled with the escalating Israel-Iran tensions, forced both Russia and Iran to divert attention away from Syria. As rebels intensified their offensive last month, Russia's focus on Ukraine limited its ability to respond effectively.

- Similarly, Iran's support for Assad weakened amid rising tensions with Israel. Iran's allied militias suffered significant losses, reducing their operational capacity in Syria. Since 2013, Hezbollah had deployed thousands of fighters to aid Assad but later shifted many to southern Lebanon due to increased Israeli pressure, diminishing its military presence in Syria.
- In Afghanistan, e US withdrawal strategy and direct talks with the Taliban sidelined the Republic, eroding its political legitimacy and military strength, paving the way for the government's swift collapse in August 2021. Following the US-Taliban Doha Agreement in February 2020, US military support to the Afghan forces dropped sharply, with airstrikes falling by 78 per cent — from 7,243 in 2019 to 1,631 in 2020 — nearly half occurring just before the agreement. The loss of US air support enabled the Taliban to encircle major cities in the country. These downfalls were not solely driven by the influence of global major powers. Both countries had long grappled with state fragility marked by protracted conflicts, pervasive corruption, expanding illicit economies and overly centralised, exclusionary governments.
- Despite the differences in their political systems, both governments were exclusionary and highly centralised. The Assad regime, led by a minority Alawite-dominated government, an offshoot of Shia Islam, was predominantly secular but deeply authoritarian. It maintained a highly centralised, militaristic structure, marked by systemic brutality, repression, entrenched nepotism and sectarian favouritism. These oppressive policies fuelled persistent religious-based militant opposition, ultimately contributing to the regime's fall.fghanistan, as a fragile state, has long suffered from the authoritarian, exclusionary and centralised nature of governance. Every ruler who centralised power by excluding others has paved his own demise, with Ghani being the most recent example. While Ghani did not employ brutality and repression in his governance like Assad did, he overly centralised power and pursued exclusionary policies, keeping a tight, close circle and relying on a narrow support base.
- While the Doha Agreement arguably triggered the state's collapse, Ghani's exclusionary governance approach exacerbated the structural weaknesses that ultimately led to his government's downfall.
- Widespread, systematic corruption in both cases inevitably contributed to their collapse. In Syria, corruption existed at both the political 'macro' and

Christmas is about caring & sharing

TRYSTS AND TURNS: There is no greater reward than being loved by the men you had the honour of leading

THREE retired head constables invited me to participate in puja to mark Dattatreya Jayanti last week. On arrival at the venue in the Police Lines, I was met by retired and serving cops, who were genuinely pleased that I had come. It was easily the best Christmas gift I could have expected. There is no greater reward than being remembered and loved by the men whom you had at some stage of your career the honour of leading. That particular temple in the Police Lines had been inaugurated by me in 1982 when I was the city's Police Commissioner. That fact had escaped my memory. A plaque recording the event had been affixed to the temple wall. The men insisted on photographs being taken in front of the plaque that bore my name. Without a wife to help me deal with the pressure of touching base with family and friends, I am learning to cope with the Xmas season. There is a constant demand for my presence at gatherings planned for the last month of the year. At my age, it is extremely challenging to venture out of the house in the evenings even once a week, but in this season, the demand is for almost every day of the week. This year will be my 96th Xmas celebration. I have no recollection of the first seven. My father was the Superintendent of Posts in Baroda when I was born in 1929. He was transferred to Poona (now Pune) as Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service n 1930.

In 1964, I was appointed Superintendent of Police, Pune City. A Hindu priest dressed in a saffron robe strode into my office and introduced himself as "someone who knew me when I was two years old". He said his father had been my father's head clerk in the postal superintendent's office. He introduced himself by the name he had adopted after taking his vow of chastity and commitment to a religious discipline. Thirty years later, on my way to Rajgurunagar from Mumbai by car, I stopped at Lonavala. On learning of my arrival at the wayside restaurant, two or three men working in an ashram run by the same holy man came over to the table where my wife and I were sitting and greeted us. They told me that the baba had taken samadhi. Since the baba had mentioned me to them more than once, they were delighted to meet me.

That meeting remains etched in my memory, as do the baba's visits to my office in Pune. During one of those visits, he had talked of taking samadhi and I remember trying to dissuade him from doing so.

THE recent Special Representatives' meeting in Beijing between India's National Security Adviser Ajit Doval and

What I regret is that I just cannot remember his name after all these years. Two Christmases I do remember - one in 1956 and the other in 1989. In 1956, I was the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Nasik division. Deolali was under my jurisdiction. The Artillery Regimental Centre was located there. A young Christian officer named Valladares hitched a ride in my car from Nasik to Mumbai. Both of us were on leave for a week and since our respective parents were from Mumbai, we planned the trip for Xmas

The young Army officer was from Bandra. I decided to drop him off at his residence. I had never seen a place so brightly illuminated and decorated as I did on that memorable Xmas eve in 1956. Bandra was almost entirely a Christian enclave in the 1950s. Today, it is only partly so, but the Christians of Bandra still continue to display bright lights.

In 1989, I was posted in Bucharest, the capital of Romania. That was the only year I failed to attend Mass in a church on Xmas Day. Romanian dictator Nicolae Ceausescu had just been deposed. He and his wife Elena were executed by a firing squad that day after a cursory trial. A mini revolution against his dictatorship was at its peak at that time. We could not step out of the ambassador's residence. We spent the day watching armed men move menacingly on the road outside. This year, I will celebrate the festival in Mumbai in the traditional manner — go to Mass, greeting priests and the congregation, and having Xmas lunch with the family. Some neighbours and close friends will visit. With them I will share cake and wine.

Around Christmas every year, my friend, Leena Gandhi Tewari, observes an annual day for children from the Vakola slums whom she has literally adopted. In the beginning, she began with girls only, but recently she has been admitting boys to her centre, which she has named after her grandmother. These children of domestic help and drivers and the like are taught classical dancing, acting in plays and other forms of art and culture that helps them gain self-confidence, poise and knowledge. Tutors proficient in subjects taught to them in school are employed by the centre to encourage the girls and boys to excel in scholastics.

The results of her efforts over the years have been a source of great satisfaction to the children as well as their parents and also to Leena, her husband Prashant and the staff they have employed in the venture. Leena has spent not only her own money and her time but also her energy with a single-minded devotion to bettering the standards of living of the needy and the dispossessed. This year, two girls cleared the MBA (Finance) exams, three got through the Bachelor of Management Studies course and two in BAF (Bachelor of Accounting and Finance). Their skills are being developed to enable them to compete in the job market. The country needs many more Leenas who are willing to part with slices of their wealth for those less fortunate than them. Both my own daughters, now into their sixties, mentor girls entrusted to their care by a Delhi-based NGO, the Udayan Shalini Foundation, which has opened a branch in Mumbai. They spend quality time with the mentees, introducing them to polite society and inculcating in them a feeling of self-confidence and pride in their own worth.

Two Muslim ladies I know, Mumtaz and Shameem, run the Botawala Trust established by their late father. The trust shelters 50 Muslim girls orphaned at a young age. They house the girls in a building constructed on their own property, feed them and generally attend to their emotional needs. The quality of life in Mumbai has improved for these unfortunate children because the city boasts of such compassionate women.

> diplomacy. However, translating these commitments into actionable change will require sustained political will and vigilance. The broader implications of this meeting cannot be overlooked. As both nations grapple with shifting global power dynamics, their engagement holds the potential to influence the multipolar world order. Collaborative initiatives in trade, technology and multilateral platforms like BRICS could pave the way for a more stable and prosperous region.

> et, peace is only the starting point. Both nations must seize this opportunity to redefine their relationship

International's 2019 Corruption Perceptions Index placed Syria at rank 178 out of 180 countries, indicating that the civil war further exacerbated the country's already severe corruption problem. The broader ineptitude, brutality and systematic corruption within the army and other public institutions fuelled the government's downfall.

consensus aimed at deepening cooperation in areas such as border trade, data sharing on trans-border rivers and the resumption of the Kailash Mansarovar Yatra.While the agreements signal progress, challenges persist. The border dispute remains a complex and sensitive issue, compounded by historical grievances and mutual mistrust. The emphasis on confidence-building measures committed to maintaining peace and tranquillity along the

and 'step-by-step' resolutions demonstrates pragmatic through people-to-people exchanges, eased trade barriers and cultural cooperation. These steps are essential to build trust and overcome the lingering shadows of conflict. The path to reconciliation is long, but this dialogue offers hope for a more harmonious future. For India and China, peace is not just an ideal but a necessity.

The alarm over widening trade deficit is misplaced

The govt would rather sustain the narrative of corruption under the UPA than design new PPP policies for large, broad-based private investment in infrastructure.

IINDIA'S September quarter (Q2) growth came in at a disappointing 5.4 per cent. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has lowered its growth projection for this year to 6.6 per cent, from its earlier forecast of 7.2 per cent. SBI economists put the likely growth rate for the year at 6.3 per cent. These estimates combine with ordinary folks' lived experience of high prices and persistent unemployment and news flashes of a surge in the trade deficit to record highs, with the official narrative still clamouring that India remains the fastest growing large economy. The economic news is both worse than it looks in some ways and better than it looks in some other ways. The unexpected spike in the trade deficit in November is no big deal, for example. It was caused by a surge in the import of gold. As global gold prices came down, importers more than doubled the imports of the precious metal — from $7.13 billion in October to $14.8 billion in November. The RBI has, of late, been shoring up gold reserves in the country's overall foreign exchange reserves as well. What really matters is not so much the trade balance as a broader measure, the In a closed economy, what the economy can current account balance, which takes into account not just the balance in merchandise trade, but also the balance in export and import of services (computer- If exports are less than imports, the current related services matter a lot), and inflows and outflows of income from the factors of production, labour and capital, comprising remittances, profits, royalties, interest. The current account balance determines whether a country is a net supplier of savings to the rest of the world, running up a current account surplus, or a net drawer of external savings, running up a current account deficit. When the current account is in deficit, we end up owing foreigners money. How does that draw external savings into the economy? Let us consider savings and investment in real, rather than monetary, form. Everything an economy produces in a year is either consumed, invested or exported. Yet, when we add up consumption, investment and exports, we do not get GDP, the value of everything produced in a year. That is because there is an element of imports in the things we consume, invest and even export — we import crude and export refined products, such as petrol and diesel, for example. So, GDP is the sum of consumption, investment and exports net of imports, exports and imports being seen comprehensively, including all services, covering factor services, apart from goods.Savings are that part of the output that is not consumed. In other words, savings are equal to GDP less consumption, meaning that savings are equal to investment plus net exports. If net exports, that is, the current account balance, is zero, that is, exports exactly match imports, savings would equal investment.

account balance (next exports) would be negative. Savings, remember, are the sum of investment and next exports. When the net exports element is negative, domestic savings are smaller than domestic investment by that element of net exports. In other words, domestic investment is greater than domestic savings, thanks to that current account deficit (CAD)

With a CAD, you either run down past reserves of foreign exchange or owe foreigners money. That is, foreigners must be willing to finance your CAD. The amount of foreign savings your economy ingests is measured by your CAD, not by capital inflows, classified as foreign direct investments or foreign portfolio investments. These inflows remain as cash balances till they are absorbed into the real economy via financing a CAD.

This is why alarm over a trade deficit is misplaced. India's CAD for 2023-24 was 0.7 per cent of GDP and has nudged up to 1.1 per cent of GDP in the April-June quarter this year. A current account deficit up to 3 per cent is not only sustainable but also desirable, so that the economy can augment domestic savings to invest more and grow faster.

So, worry over a widening trade deficit is wholly misplaced. The only alarm on the external front is that we are unable to run up a current account deficit large enough to accelerate domestic investment and growth.

Slowing growth is indeed a concern, as is the government's contradictory policy response. While the Budget did announce a massive capital outlay, spending has been deficient. At the end of October, while total receipts have been 53.7 per cent of the budget estimate (BE), capital expenditure has been just 42 per cent of BE, even as revenue expenditure has been 54.1 per cent of BE. Nor has there been any coherent policy to boost private investment. A quarter of the manufacturing capacity has been lying underutilised since 2015-16. This dissuades capacity expansion. The government would rather sustain the narrative of corruption under the UPA than design new public-private-partnership policies for large, broad-based private investment in infrastructure.Yet another dampener is the regressive tax reform. The latest is the proposal to create a sixth slab for GST, beyond the existing range of zero, 5 per cent, 12 per cent, 18 per cent and 28 per cent. Now, a 35 per cent rate has been proposed, purportedly, for sin goods. More goods and services are liable to turn sinful over time. The net result would be loss of revenue and reinforcement of a culture of tax complexity, avoidance and evasion.Higher import duties on gold and higher excise duties on cigarettes have both encouraged largescale smuggling. Higher rates on luxury goods would drive their purchases totally abroad. The goal in GST reform is convergence of rates and fewer slabs, not rate creep or retrospective levies.

पटना। उद्योगपति गौतम अडानी का ऊर्जा समेत विभिन्न क्षेत्रों में कारोबार करने वाला देश का अग्रणी अडानी समूह की बिहार में अल्ट्रा-सुपरक्रिटिकल ताप विद्युत संयंत्र स्थापित करने के लिए 20 हजार करोड रुपये समेत कुल 27 हजार 900 करोड़ रुपये निवेश करने की योजना है। अडानी इंटरप्राइजेज लिमिटेड के निदेशक प्रणव अडानी ने राजधानी पटना में आयोजित दो

दिवसीय वैश्विक निवेशक सम्मेलन 'बिहार बिजनेस कनेक्ट-2024 में बिहार में कुल 27 हजार 900 करोड़ रुपये निवेश की योजना का उल्लेख करते हुए कहा, हम बिहार के ऊर्जा क्षेत्र में भी निवेश के अवसर तलाश रहे हैं। हमारी योजना अल्टा-सुपरक्रिटिकल थर्मल पावर प्लांट स्थापित करने के लिए लगभग 20,000 करोड़ रुपये निवेश करने की है। हमें उम्मीद है कि इस तरह की विशाल परियोजना से प्री-कमीशनिंग

चरण में कम से कम 12,000 नौकरियां और परिचालन चरण के दौरान लगभग 1,500 कुशल नौकरियों के अवसर सुजित होंगे।श्री अडानी ने कहा कि तीन क्षेत्रों, लॉजिस्टिक्स, गैस वितरण और कृषि-लॉजिस्टिक्स में हमने पहले ही लगभग 850 करोड रुपये का निवेश किया है और लगभग 25,000 प्रत्यक्ष और अप्रत्यक्ष रोजगार के अवसर भी सुजित किए हैं। अब हम इन क्षेत्रों में 2,300 करोड़ रुपये का

और निवेश करने जा रहे हैं। उन्होंने कहा कि यह निवेश न केवल कंपनी की वेयरहाउसिंग और हैंडलिंग क्षमता को बढ़ाएगा बल्कि ईवी, सीडीजी और सीबीजी क्षेत्र में हमारी उपस्थिति का विस्तार करेगा। उन्होंने दावा किया कि इस निवेश से राज्य में अतिरिक्त 27 हजार प्रत्यक्ष और अप्रत्यक्ष स्थानीय रोजगार के अवसर भी सुजित होंगे। अडानी इंटरप्राइजेज लिमिटेड के निदेशक ने कहा कि समूह बिहार में रणनीतिक बुनियादी

ढांचे के विकास में संभावित रूप से 1,000 करोड रुपये का निवेश करने के लिए राज्य सरकार के साथ मिलकर काम कर रहा है, जैसे गति शक्ति रेलवे टर्मिनल, आईसीडी (अंतर्देशीय कंटेनर डिपो) और औद्योगिक वेयरहाउसिंग पार्क। एक और क्षेत्र जिसमें समुह निवेश कर रहा है वह है स्मार्ट मीटर निर्माण। बिहार पारंपरिक बिजली मीटर से स्मार्ट मीटर की ओर बढ रहा है पांच शहरों सीवान, इसलिए

गोपालगंज, वैशाली, सारण और समस्तीपुर में बिजली की खपत की निगरानी को स्वचालित करने के लिए 28 लाख से अधिक स्मार्ट मीटर बनाने और स्थापित करने के लिए 2,100 करोड़ रुपये का निवेश किया जाएगा। इससे इस प्रौद्योगिकी क्षेत्र में कम से कम 4,000 स्थानीय नौकरियां पैदा होंगी। श्री अडानी ने कहा, पांच महीने पहले जुलाई के अंत में हमने बिहार में एक और रोमांचक नए क्षेत्र में प्रवेश किया। तब मुख्यमंत्री नीतीश

आपकी तैयारी हमारा साथ

उससे आगे वह किस दिशा में जाएगा, तो लगभग 65 प्रतिशत छात्र बिना किसी शंका के अपने भविष्य का खाका बुन सकते हैं।' अमेरिका के राष्ट्रपति बराक ओबामा का यह कथन शतप्रतिशत सही है। अब वो वक्त आ गया है, जब बारहवीं के छात्रों को इस कथन पर अमल करना चाहिए। परीक्षाओं की तैयारी इस ओर पहला कदम है।

शिक्षा और करियर का चोली–दामन का साथ है। आप अपने लिए किस तरह की जिंदगी की रचना कर रहे हैं या अपने लिए क्या चाहते हैं, इसका उत्तर अब तक आपको मिल जाना चाहिए। ग्यारहवीं में आप स्कूल में जिन विषयों को चुनते बने-बनाए ढर्रे से बाहर निकल कर नया सोचना

'अगर छात्र यह जान ले कि वह जो पढ रहा है, हैं और बोर्ड एग्जाम में शिरकत करते हैं, उनसे तय होता है कि आप आगे किस ओर बढ रहे हैं। बोर्ड एग्जाम हव्वा नहीं है, पर अहम है। इन परीक्षाओं को ले कर आपको डरने की जरूरत नहीं है। अगर आप आज से ही जुट जाएंगे और समय-समय पर अपने अध्यापकों से अपनी शंकाओं का समाधान करते जाएंगे, तो आप बडी आसानी से एग्जाम की वैतरणी पार कर सकते हैं। शिक्षाविद् और आईआईटी, मुंबई से शिक्षित डॉक्टर सलीम शीशावाला कोलंबिया यूनिवसिटी में प्रोफेसर हैं। उन्होंने कुछ समय पहले यूनिवसिर्टी में अपने प्रजेंटेशन के दौरान कहा था--अब वक्त आ गया है कि छात्रों को अपने

चाहिए। वे सिर्फ मैथ्स, साइंस, इकोनॉमिक्स, लेंग्वेज और कॉमर्स के बारे में ना सोचें, बल्कि यह देखें कि वे आज जो पढ़ रहे हैं और कॉलेज में पढ़ना चाहते हैं, क्या वे उसी क्षेत्र में अपना करियर बनाना चाहते हैं? डॉक्टर सलीम ने कई मोटिवेशनल किताबें भी लिखी हैं। इंजीनियरिंग करने के बाद उन्होंने कुछ समय एक कारखाने में काम किया था। वहीं जा कर उन्हें लगा कि छात्र जीवन में उन्हें मशीनों से प्यार करना नहीं सिखाया गया और उन्हें इस बात का अहसास हुआ कि नौकरी और शिक्षा में कितना ज्यादा फासला है।

हैं, तो अब हो जाएं। बोर्ड एग्जाम तक हर सप्ताह नई दिशाएं आपको विभिन्न विषयों की तैयारी के अलावा परीक्षा से जुड़ी दूसरी तमाम बातों को लेकर आपकी शंकाओं को दूर करेगी।

स्पेशलाइजेशन के तौर पर कराई जाती है, जिसमें पुणे यूनिवर्सिटी, दिल्ली यूनिवर्सिटी, मदुरै कामराज यूनिवर्सिटी, गुरु नानक देव यूनिवर्सिटी शामिल हैं। दिल्ली की जवाहरलाल नेहरू यूनिवर्सिटी दो सालों के एमएससी बायोटेक्नोलॉजी कोर्स के लिए कंबाइंड एंट्रेस टेस्ट लेती है।

भारत में विश्व बैंक की विभिन्न परियोजनाएं भी खासतौर पर गांवों के लिए चालू की गई हैं। इसके अलावा गैर सरकारी संगठनों ने भी गांव में कॉम करना शुरू कर दिया है। ऐसे में ग्रामीण विकास डिप्लोमा एक बेहतर कॅरियर के रूप में उभरा है।

ग्रामीण विकास में डिप्लोमा पाठयऋम की अवधि एक वर्ष की है लेकिन उत्तर प्रदेश राजर्षि टंडन मुक्त विश्वविद्यालय में एक से तीन वर्ष तक का पाटयक्रम है। पादयत्रम का माध्यम केवल हिन्दी और अंग्रेजी ही हैं। इन संस्थानों से

अपराध की गुत्थियां सुलझाने में फॉरेंसिक साइंस काफी मददगार साबित होती है। इसकी पढ़ाई के बाद देश ही नहीं, विदेश में भी रोजगार के अवसर मिलते हैं।

फॉरेंसिक साइंस एक ऐसा विज्ञान है, जिसमें अपराधों की जांच– छात्र पुलिस को सहायता पहुंचाते हैं।

शैक्षिक योग्यता

फॉरेंसिक साइंस से संबंधित ज्यादातर कोर्स स्नातक एवं परास्नातक लेवल के हैं। इसके लिए वही छात्र आवेदन कर सकते हैं, जिन्होंने विज्ञान विषय के साथ 10+2 किया हो, जबकि एमएससी एवं पीजी डिप्लोमा पाठयुत्रमों के लिए बीएससी होना जरूरी है। मास्टर डिग्री हासिल करने के बाद एमफिल एवं पीएचडी कोर्स में दाखिला मिलता है।

पडताल में वैज्ञानिक सिद्धांतों का इस्तेमाल किया जाता है। फॉरेंसिक साइंटिस्ट मौके पर जाकर कई तरह के क्लू जैसे फिंगर प्रिंट, ब्लड सैंपल व साक्ष्य आदि जुटाते हैं । अन्य कई तरह की जांच में भी इनका अहम योगदान रहता है। फॉरेंसिक साइंटिस्ट से इनपुट लेकर ही इनवेस्टिगेटिंग ऑफिसर अदालत के समक्ष हाजिर होता है। इसके अंतर्गत घटनास्थल से लेकर केस से जडे एक–एक तथ्य को बारीकी से जांचा जाता है।

जेनेटिक इंजीनियरिंग में करियर की संभावनाएं

जेनेटिक इंजीनियरिंग में एम–टेक या जेनेटिक्स में एमएससी की प्रवेश परीक्षा में बैठने के लिए छात्र को लाइफ साइंस, इंजीनियरिंग, एमबीबीएस या बीडीएस जैसे विषयों में 55 प्रतिशत अंकों के साथ स्नातक होना चाहिए। कई विश्वविद्यालयों में जेनेटिक इंजीनियरिंग एमएससी इन बायोटेक्नोलॉजी में

आजकल राज्य सरकारें ही नहीं भारत सरकार भी ग्रामीण विकास पर पूरा ध्यान दे रही है। भारत में विश्व बैंक की विभिन्न परियोजनाएं भी खासतौर पर गांवों के लिए चालू की गई हैं। इसके अलावा गैर सरकारी संगठनों ने भी गांव में काम करना शुरू कर दिया है। ऐसे में ग्रामीण विकास डिप्लोमा एक बेहतर कॅरियर के रूप में उभरा है। खास बात ये है कि यह पाट्यक्रम दूरस्थ पद्धति द्वारा संचालित किया जाता है। ग्रामीण विकास डिप्लोमा पाठयऋम में दाखिला लेने के लिए उम्मीदवार का स्नातक होना अनिवार्य है। लेकिन उत्तर प्रदेश राजर्षि टंडन मुक्त विश्वविद्यालय ने बारहवीं कक्षा में भी इसे मान्यता दी है। वहीं अन्नामलाई विश्वविद्यालय ने स्नातक के साथ-साथ ग्रामीण क्षेत्र में दो वर्ष का कार्य अनुभव भी दाखिले के वक्त अनिवार्य तौर पर रखा है।

ग्रामीण विकास डिप्लोमा पाठयऋम में प्रशिक्षण लिया जा सकता है–

- कर्नाटक स्टेट मुक्त विश्वविद्यालय, मनसागंगोत्री, मैसूर- 570006
- अन्नामलाई विश्वविद्यालय, डायरेक्टरेट ऑफ डिस्टेन्स एजुकेशन, अन्नामलाई नगर- 608002

कोर्स से जुड़ी जानकारी

फॉरेंसिक साइंस को लेकर आजकल तीन तरह के कोर्स संचालित हो रहे हैं। पहला सर्टिफिकेट कोर्स है, जिसमें फॉरेंसिक साइंस के विभिन्न पहलुओं के बारे में प्रारम्भिक स्तर का ज्ञान दिया जाता है। साथ ही भौतिकी, केमिस्ट्री, टैक्सिकोलॉजी, एंथ्रोपोलॉजी, मनोविज्ञान व मेडिसिन के बारे में जानकारी दी जाती है। दूसरा कोर्स स्नातक स्तर का बीएससी इन फॉरेंसिक साइंस होता है। तीन वर्षीय इस कोर्स में विभिन्न बिन्दुओं के अलावा सर्टिफिकेट अथवा डिप्लोमा में पढ़ाए विषयों को विस्तार के साथ बताया जाता है। इसमें थ्योरी व प्रेक्टिकल दोनों समान रूप से चलते हैं। पीजी लेवल पर पहले सेमेस्टर में त्रिमिनल लॉ, त्राइम सीन मैनेजमेंट, स्केचिंग सहित कई महत्वपूर्ण बिन्दुओं पर प्रकाश डाला जाता है, जबकि दूसरे सेमेस्टर में हैंडराइटिंग परीक्षण के अलावा सेरोलॉजी, एंथ्रोपोलॉजी आदि पर ज्ञान बढाया जाता है।

इस रूप में मिलेगा काम

फॉरेंसिक साइंस का कोर्स करने के पश्चात निम्न रूप में अवसर सामने आते हैं-

फॉरेंसिक पैथोलॉजिस्ट- इससे संबंधित प्रोफेशनल्स मर्डर अथवा संदेहात्मक परिस्थितियों में हुई मौत के समय का आकलन करते हैं। फॉरेंसिक एंथ्रोपोलॉजिस्ट- एंथ्रोपोलॉजी में पीएचडी अथवा फॉरेंसिक साइंस में उच्च योग्यता हासिल करने के पश्चात फॉरेंसिक एंथ्रोपोलॉजिस्ट के रूप में काम किया जा सकता है। ये किसी बड़े हादसे जैसे अग्निकाण्ड, प्लेन ऋेश होने, विस्फोट आदि में मृत लोगों की पहचान अथवा उनके बारे में विवरण जुटाते हैं।

The in-form Nishita Akter Nishi took two crucial wickets and made sure that that Indian batters weren't allowed to overly

India captain Niki elated after historic Asia Cup win: Bowlers did a fantastic job

Despite trailing for the majority of the Test match, India managed to eke out a draw in the 3rd Test match. Akash Deep and Jasprit Bumrah's heroic partnership was key to India's survival, as they added crucial 47 runs for the final wicket, saving India from the embarrassment of follow-on. In the process, Australia were forced to come out to bat for the second time, which cut into their crucial bowling hours on the final day. With inclement weather playing part, the hosts failed to capitalise on their advantage, with the Test match ending in a draw.Speaking ahead of the Boxing Day Test at the Melbourne Cricket Ground, Akash Deep said that the entire dressing room was happy when he and Bumrah returned to the dressing room unbeaten at the end of Day 4. On that day, Virat Kohli, Gautam Gambhir and Rohit Sharma celebrated wildly after India had crossed the 245-run threshold.

"The position that I bat it, if we can add 25 runs at the back end, it becomes very important. I always want to contribute with the bat. On Day 4 at the Gabba, my mindset was that I did not want to get out and thankfully by God's grace that worked out. When I went back to the dressing room, the mood had lifted up. When you save a follow-on, you get confident and you cold see that on everybody's face, everyone was enjoying," Akash Deep said at the MCG on Sunday.

"The series is 50-50 going into the last two Test matches. In the last Test match, while we were behind for the most part, the confidence we got in the last day, I think that matters and.

But she also heaped praise on the bowlers for defending a low total as India became the champions of the inaugural edition after winning the match by 41 runs at the Bayuemas Oval in Kuala Lumpur.After being asked to bat first, all India could manage was 117 for seven on the back of Gongadi Trisha's half-century and a 17-run cameo from Mithila Vinod. Thereafter, Aayushi Shukla picked up three wickets as India bowled their opponents out for 76 in 18.3 overs.Prasad, who will play for the Delhi Capitals (DC) in the upcoming Women's Premier League (WPL), said that staying calm under pressure has helped the Indian team in the tournament."We felt we were a few runs short, maybe 20 runs short, we knew that we had a good bowling side and would bowl well. We were trying to stay in the game, have that intent, body language and our bowlers and fielders did a fantastic job," Prasad said in the post-match presentation ceremony.

but scoring 117 on this wicket is good. But 'The first thing is that all of us are very calm in the dressing room and so, that brings a lot of confidence. When the batters are batting and things are not going in our side, it doesn't matter as we are calm and that's why we got to that score," Prasad said.

Niki lauded Trisha for scoring 52 runs off 47 balls while opening the batting. She also hailed Trisha as India's "mystery bowler" after the latter bowled three overs for 10 runs."The way G Trisha has batted, it was fabulous. I liked the approach we had, and we batted really well. She is also our mystery bowler, and she bowled really well," Prasad added.After becoming the champions of Asia, India are set to defend their title in the Under-19 Women's T20 World Cup to be held in Malaysia from January 18 to February 2.

Aayushi Shukla steps up again

Bangladesh did not get off to the best of starts as Mosammat Eva and Sumaiya Akhter could not go past single digits. Opening batter Fahomida Choya and Juairiya Ferdous scored 18 and 22 respectively. Skipper Sumaiya Akter faltered after Sonam Yadav accounted for her wicket.Sonam and Parunika Sisodia picked up two scalps apiece. It was again Aayushi Shukla, who was the pick of the bowlers for India. Shukla, who finished the tournament as the top wicket-taker, rattled the Bangladeshi batting with figures of 3.3-0-17-3.After VJ Joshitha dismissed Eva for a duck in the second over. # Disciplined Akash Deep credits Rohit-Kohli for massive growth-curve in Australia

India pacer Akash Deep credited senior batters Virat Kohli and Rohit Sharma for the betterment of young India fast bowlers. The seamer credited the duo for helping young pacers not look like novices on their first tour of Australia.

New Delhi. Sunil Gavaskar has been critical of the timing of R Ashwin's retirement call, claiming that the spinner should have made the decision after the end of the Border-Gavaskar Trophy. Ashwin would make the shock call after the Gabba Test on Wednesday, December 18, after the match ended in a draw.

The rumours had started to come in on Wednesday morning when Ashwin was seen sharing a warm embrace with Virat Kohli in the dressing room as the game was halted by rain. Ashwin would then appear alongside Rohit Sharma in the post-match press conference and announce his decision to the reporters. Speaking to the broadcasters, Gavaskar said that the shock call had now left the Indian squad one man short. The Indian legend feels that Ashwin could have had a chance to make it to the side during the Sydney, where the pitch could have offered support to spinners.He could have said, listen after the end of the series, I won't be available for selection for India. What it does is that, similarly when MS Dhoni retired at the end of the 3rd Test in 2014-15 series, it leaves you one short. The selection committee has picked so many players for a tour with a purpose. If there are any injuries they can select from the reserve players to have in the team. So, Sydney is somewhere where there is a lot of support on offer for spinners. So India could have played with 2 spinners. You never know. He could have been there for sure. I don't know how the pitch in Melbourne will be like."Normally, you tend to look at the end of the series. That's it. In the middle, it is not usual," said Gavaskar.When asked if Washington Sundar was ahead of Ashwin in the pecking order, Gavaskar said that could be the case. The Indian legend ended by hailing Ashwin as a fine cricketer."Maybe Washington Sundar is ahead of him. Rohit said he is flying out tomorrow.

So that's the end of Ashwin as an international cricketer. He has been one heck of a cricketer," said Gavaskar.
